Declaration of Principles

We believe in the coming of His Kingdom whose service is perfect freedom, because His laws written in our members as well as in nature and in grace, are perfect, converting the soul.

We believe in the gospel of the Golden Rule, and that each man's habits of life should be an example safe and beneficent for every other man to follow.

We believe that God created both man and woman in His own image, and therefore we believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions and to express the same with equal freedom.

We believe in a living wage; in an eight-hour day; in courts of conciliation and arbitration; in justice as opposed to greed of gain; in "peace on earth and good will to men."

We therefore formulate, and for ourselves adopt the following pledge, asking our sisters and brothers of a common danger and a common hope, to make common cause with us, in working its reasonable and helpful precepts into the practice of every-day life:

I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, and to employ all proper means to discourage the use of and traffic in the same.

To confirm and enforce the rationale of this pledge, we declare our purpose to educate the young; to form a better public sentiment; to reform, so far as possible, by religious, ethical and scientific means, the drinking classes; to seek the transforming power of Divine grace for ourselves and all for whom we work, that they and we may wilfully transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally we pledge ourselves to labor and to pray that all these principles, founded upon the gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land.

Mid-Year Executive Meeting

April 3-4, 1917

Executive committee met in Christian church in Wabash. President Vayhinger in the chair. President spoke feelingly of the absence of our Recording Secretary Mrs. Pearce, and asked that all remember her and her dear husband in prayer.

Opening prayer voiced by Mrs. Gulia Shugart.

President read the 52nd Psalm and commented on it at length. She warned us that we must not expect an easy way, that a great conflict is before us and that it will not always be easy to stand for W. C. T. U. principles. We must bring new women into our organization because the W. C. T. U. must lead.

Miss Woodard was asked to serve as Recording Secretary.

Roll call showed the presence of 8 trustees and 17 other members present. 8 others arrived later making 33 in attendance beside a number of visitors.

The Corresponding Secretary reported that twenty-two new unions have been organized in the state since the state convention.

She reported that Mary Harris Armour spent five days in the state before National and again in January she spent two weeks in the state helping to arouse an interest in the passage of the prohibition bill. This report was followed by a lengthy discussion of organization work, especially among the colored people.

Mrs. Alma Shaw led in noontide prayer. Com't arose.

Afternoon session opened at 1:30 with prayer by Mrs. Sophia B. Huff.

Mrs. Vayhinger then spoke of the W. C. T. U. study course, which is to consist of fifteen lessons. A union meeting every two weeks will be able to complete the course by September. On motion of Mrs. Retta Jones it was decided that unions working to be banner unions may substitute the study course for the regular program and still receive credit on their points. Moved by Mrs. Stanley that sets of supplies for the study course be kept at Central Office. Motion carried. The price of the sets is $1.00. Recommended that each local president have a set of these supplies and that a set be placed in each library.

Mrs. Canatsy moved that the Executive Committee authorize the General Officers to provide for reaching all classes of women with literature informing them along the lines of their duties as voters. Motion carried.

Recommended by Mrs. Vayhinger that County Presidents see their county judges and secure the appointment of women notary publics in each locality to have charge of the registration of women voters.

Miss Sears made a report for the first six months of the year: 19 new unions reported to her, 18 of which have paid dues. All old unions have paid dues except two. 5,124 members have paid dues this year and we must collect dues from 6,361 members in the next six months in order to hold our own.

Paid out to date, for sundry expenses in legislative work, $643.80.

Balance of National Convention fund, $765.82.

Expended in legislature work of this fund, $415.85.

Cost of legislative work $ 1,059.65.

Balance of National expense fund, $349.97.

Mrs. Retta Jones extended an invitation for the state convention to be held in Anderson. On motion of Mrs. Heath the invitation was accepted.

On motion of Mrs. Gulia Shugart, October 26-29 was fixed as the time of the meeting of convention.

Mrs. Vayhinger read a letter from Mr. E. H. Parkinson, Washington, D. C., asking that letters and telegrams be sent to our congressmen for the enactment of nation wide prohibition, as a military necessity, without waiting for the tedious process of constitutional amendment. Moved by Mrs. Stanley that a letter be sent to our congressmen from this meeting. Motion carried. Moved also by Mrs. Stanley that this suggestion be put in the papers and churches and other organizations be asked to co-operate with us in petitioning congress for the immediate enactment of a prohibition law. Motion carried.

By consent of Executive Mrs. Shugart, Mrs. Ridenour and Mrs. Hunt were appointed to frame a resolution on the subject of peace to be presented to a future session.

Moved by Mrs. Heath that Mrs. S. C. Stimson be appointed State Superintendent of Franchise to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Kirkman. Motion carried.

Mrs. Vayhinger gave an exhaustive resume of the organization and work of the Dry Federation and stated that plans of local organization would soon be perfected and sent out to county presidents.

On motion of Miss Sears committee arose to meet at 9 a. m. Wednesday morning.

Wednesday A. M.

Meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Dollie Stalker.

A letter from Mrs. Anna Jones with reference to the wrecking of her home by the tornado was read. Mrs. Stanley moved that an order be drawn on the treasury for $50.00 for Mrs. Anna Jones. Motion carried.

Moved by Mrs. Gable that the local unions be asked to make donations to the White Ribbon sufferers from the storm in New Albany. Moved by Mrs. Gipe to amend by saying that the county presidents be asked to recommend to union that these donations be made. Mrs. Gable accepted the amendment and the motion carried.

A letter was read from Mrs. Nora Nowells, expressing regret because of her inability to attend this meeting. Moved by Mrs. Retta Jones that letters of sympathy be sent to Mrs. Nowells, Mrs. Pearce, Mrs. Kroft, Mrs. Anna Jones, Mrs. Bettie Adams. Motion carried.

Moved and carried that Mrs. Stimson and Mrs. White be made members of Executive with all privileges except voting.

MARY E. WOODARD, Secretary Protem.

Minutes of Executive Meeting

EXECUTIVE REPORT

October 18, 1917.

Executive was called to order by State President in the Epworth League room of the First M. E. church of Anderson at 2 p. m.

After the singing of "Rock of Ages," Mrs. Vayhinger read the 9th Psalm. Mrs. Vayhinger said: A rock signified strength. To the Psalmist it also signified safety when we are driven to the place where we trust solely in God then it is that we do our best work. Let our motto for the coming year be, "Duties Are Ours, Results Are God's."

After prayer the roll was called by the Recording Secretary Mrs. Rose Pearce.

Miss Mary E. Woodard, Corresponding Secretary, reported on organization. This report was followed by a discussion on "Ways and Means" by the county presidents.

The following subjects were also discussed and proved very interesting and helpful: "Difficulties in the way during the past year;" "Status of the State-Wide Prohibition Law"; "Work of Red Cross, Comfort Bags for Soldiers" The State President said that this free discussion should awaken a greater desire to help along all lines.

Mrs. Vayhinger also spoke of the great opportunity the Indiana W. C. T. U. has for service among the soldiers at Camp Benjamin Harrison.

Mrs. J. F. Foe of Indianapolis spoke to this subject.

The President next read the following recommendations from her annual address: (1) Increase in membership. (2) That an effort be made to increase the treasuries of the state, county and local unions, and asked that permission be given at this time to appoint a committee of five (5) one of which should be the State Treasurer, to formulate plans for this purpose. Permission having been given, the following were appointed as committee: Chairman, Mrs. R. F. Barnes, Mrs. Nora Nowells, Mrs. Carrie McCord, Mrs. Esther Barney, Miss Clara M. Sears, State Treasurer.

(3) In as much as the weakest part of W. C. T. U. work is its publicity work, the President suggested that a director of Publicity be appointed from among our women and asked that at this time consent be given to appoint a committee who should formulate plans for this and report at the next meeting of the Executive. Consent having been given, the following were appointed as committee: Chairman, Mrs. Carrie Brinkhoff, Mrs. Gertrude Q. Campbell, Mrs. Stella King, Mrs. M. C. Gibson, Mrs. Helen Loop. October 20, 1917.

Executive met in Epworth League room of First M. E. church at Anderson at 8 a. m., President Vayhinger in the chair.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. Anna Jones of Floyd county.

Mrs. Gertrude Q. Campbell, press superintendent, spoke for a few moments on the work of her department, giving some valuable suggestions to the County Presidents.

The first item of business was the representation of the local unions in the State Convention.

Because of the large increase in membership throughout the state, the conventions have become very large. This makes the matter of entertaining somewhat difficult. Mrs. Vayhinger said that she had hesitated to touch this question, because of the wonderful enthusiasm and inspiration a large convention brings and its influence for good on the community where it is held, but it seemed that for the best interests of the work the time had come to consider this question. The president asked for free discussion on the matter. Many of the women expressed themselves regarding the question, the discussion which was spirited closing without any definite action.

Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, president of the "Legislative Council of Indiana Women," spoke of the purpose and work of that organization. Mrs. McWhirter enlarged on the work done during the last state legislature and told of the plans for the future. She spoke of the need of united purpose and work and of a plan for raising finance to meet the expense which the legislative work would call for.

Mrs. Vayhinger spoke of the power of united purpose and said that the "Legislative Council" represented the united purpose and effort of 80,000 Indiana women for legislative measures which would be for the betterment of its people.

Committee arose.

October 20, 1917.

Executive met at 7 p. m. in Epworth League room.

After prayer by Mrs. Emma McCurdy, Miss Pearl Silvers of Jay county spoke of the great success of the local institute which had been held by one of the local unions in her county and asked that other County Presidents tell of their experience in this department. After several of the County Presidents had expressed themselves Mrs. Rose Pearce, State Superintendent of Institutes, gave information and suggestions regarding this branch of work. On motion, the Executive endorsed the local institute plan, and the State Superintendent was asked to prepare a "Suggestive Program" for same.

The question of placing the State Minutes in the hands of the women over the state was discussed. On motion it was decided to send three copies to every local union not ordering, such unions to pay to State Treasury forty-five cents for same.

Committee arose.

October 22, 1917.

Executive met at 8 a. m.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Monroe Vayhinger, after which business was proceeded with.

Report of Finance Committee appointed for the purpose of increasing the funds of state, county and local unions was read by Mrs. Nora Nowells:

"Your Committee on Finance suggest the following plan as a means of increasing our local, county and state treasuries: "We recommend "The Mile of Dimes" plan, viz., cards to be sent to each local union to equal one-fifth (1-5) of its membership. Every member to give a dime and get a dime until cards are filled. These cards to expire March 1st, 1918, when they will be collected by the local treasurer and from every dollar thirty (30) cents be retained for the local treasury, the remainder sent to the county treasurer, who will retain thirty (30) cents for county treasury and send forty (40) cents to state treasurer, thirty (30) cents for state treasury and the remaining ten (10) cents for administration."

Moved by Mrs. Retta Jones, that the first plan suggested be adopted as the state plan and that plans 2, 3 and 4 be recommended as plans for the Local Unions. Motion prevailed.

Report of Committee on Publicity by Mrs. Carrie Brinkhoff: In order to place the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union before the public in a convincing manner, and to give to this department its true value in the furtherance of our cause, we, the members of the Publicity committee, do hereby recommend the appropriation from the state treasury a sufficient amount to cover the necessary expenses of a state wide campaign for publicity.

We further recommend the appointment of a woman to co-operate with the Associated and the United Press. We also recommend that the State President, with the trustees and the director, be given authority to work out further details of the plan.

CARRIE BRINKHOFF, Chairman.

HELEN LOOP, Secretary.

Moved by Mrs. Brinkhoff that this report be adopted. Motion prevailed. Moved by Mrs. Brinkhoff that we establish a Publicity Bureau. Motion prevailed.

Moved by Retta Jones that a Director of the Publicity Bureau be appointed. Motion prevailed.

On motion by Mrs. R. R. Short of Jackson County, Mrs. Stella King of Indianapolis was appointed director of the Publicity Bureau of the Indiana W. C. T. U.

On motion, the following committee on Special Resolutions was appointed: Mrs. Stella Stimson, Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, Mrs. M. C. Gibson, Mrs. Bessie Barrett and Mrs. Edith McNaughten. These resolutions after adoption by the convention, to be forwarded to President Wilson.

Committee arose.

Executive met at 1:30. Moved that the plan of granting to counties needing help for organization up to the amount of ten dollars be continued. Motion prevailed.

Moved that a letter of appreciation be sent to each outgoing State Superintendent. Motion prevailed, and the Corresponding Secretary was instructed to write same.

(1) That the Superintendents have their car fare to State Convention paid from the State Treasury, provided they are present throughout the Convention. Expense bills to be O. K. ed by the President and Secretary of Board of Superintendents; (2) That the state appropriate seventy-five dollars to defray expenses of Superintendents' Spring conference; (3) That Mrs. Iva Wood Parker be a member of the Plan of Work Committee. On motion these recommendations were adopted.

Miss Woodard presented the following recommendations for organization:

Plan of Organization: At least two new unions in every county shall be our aim for the year. Local unions are urged to work the missionary plan to prepare the way for new unions. Each county president shall be allowed $10.00 from the state treasury for expenses in organization work in her county. State organizers when sent out by the state shall receive $15.00 per week and expenses, collections to be taken at all public meetings and turned into the state treasury.

On motion these recommendations were adopted.

Report of committee on plans for increasing the membership of the local unions by Mrs. J. F. Poe:

1. A gain of 10 shall place a local union on the Honor Roll in the "Message" for one year.
2. A gain of 100 shall entitle a union to a banner, or a framed picture of Frances Willard.

Committee arose.

Executive met at 5:30 p. m. Election of editor of Message was the first business. Moved by Miss Sears that the State President be continued as editor. Motion prevailed.

On motion the editor of Phalanx Page was continued. Miss Mary Woodard was appointed Indiana correspondent to the Union Signal.

The question of awarding the watch given last year for Young Crusader subscriptions was discussed. Moved that the watch be kept until next year, and then given as a prize to the Local L. T. L. making the largest gain in membership over 100 per cent. Motion prevailed.

On motion the secretary was instructed to write Mrs. McNaughton a letter of appreciation of her success in gaining subscriptions for the Young Crusader.

Convention Minutes

October 19, 1917.

The 44th Annual Convention of the Indiana Woman's Christian Temperance Union was called to order at 9:30 a. m. by State President Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger in the First M. E. Church of Anderson. After singing the "Crusade Hymn" "Give to the Winds Thy Fears" the 146th psalm was repeated in concert.

Mrs. S. M. Stahl of Hartford City offered the opening prayer followed by short prayers from the floor of the convention.

An inspiring and impressive testimony meeting was conducted by the State President closing with prayer by Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley, State Vice President.

Roll call by the Recording Secretary Mrs. Rose Pearce responded to by County Presidents with a two sentence report of the work in their respective counties.

Moved by Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley that the program as printed, with any necessary changes, be the order of business. Motion prevailed.

Reading of minutes of Executive Meeting by the Secretary. On motion these were adopted as read.

"The Year's March" by the Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Woodard, showed that though calls for service had been multiplied during the year the White Ribboners had risen to the emergency and had in no way slackened in the general work of the organization. 42 new Unions had been reported during the year. Miss Woodard's report appears in full on another page.

On motion this very excellent report was adopted with a rising vote of thanks.

Mrs. Vayhinger spoke of the Memorial Service to be conducted at 3 p. m. by Mrs. S. M. Stahl and urged all who had names of departed comrades to see that they were placed in the hands of Mrs. Stahl at once.

Mrs. Vayhinger drew attention to the "Star Spangled Banner" hanging over the platform. Indiana won this banner last year when at the National Convention it reported the largest gain in membership among all the states. This banner was designed by Miss Frances Willard and presented by her to the National W. C. T. U.

Names of members detained from the convention by sickness, age etc., were presented.

On motion the Committee on Letters and Telegrams was instructed to write to these absent ones conveying to them the love and remembrance of the convention.

Moved by Mrs. Stanley that a telegram be sent from this convention to Gov. Goodrich expressing our joy that he has been spared to his family and to Indiana, and our appreciation of his work during the last legislature. Motion prevailed.

Noontide prayer was offered by Mrs. Joel Welty of Fort Wayne.
Adjournment.

October 19, 1917.

Convention called to order by State President at 1:30.

After singing "The Fight is On" prayer was offered by Mrs. Lida Outland of Upland. Moved by Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley that Miss Sears, State Treasurer, in giving her report, summarize by counties. Motion prevailed. "The Treasury" by Miss Clara Sears followed. The Secretary next read the auditor's report and a motion, a rising vote of thanks with its adoption was given our State Treasurer for her splendid report.

Miss Sears then gave a summarized report of the receipts and disbursements in connection with the entertaining of the National Convention at Indianapolis in November, 1916. After the reading of the auditor's report by the Secretary, on motion the report of Treasurer was adopted.

"The Children's Hour", Mrs. Ida Mix, L. T. L. Secretary.

As usual this report was interesting and inspiring and showed that throughout the state the boys and girls are helping in temperance work. Mrs. Mix urged that women be more diligent in the L. T. L. work, giving as one reason for the need of this the fact that reports sent in showed only about 1160 boys and girls enrolled in Indiana.

At this time the chair appointed Miss Elizabeth Straw timekeeper for the convention.

Six minute addresses were given by the following State Superintendents:

"The Press as a Medium of Reform," Mrs. Gertrude Q. Campbell.

"Opportunities for Prohibition Propaganda at Fairs and Open Air Meetings" Mrs. Lizzie Heath.

At this time a very pleasing and practical "playlette" entitled "A Basket of Peas" (P's) written by Mrs. Helen Loop of Marion was presented by the following ladies: Mrs. Helen Loop, authoress, Mrs. Dean Havens, Mrs. Lucile Williams, Mrs. Esther Barney, Mrs. Zora Taylor, Mrs. Mattie C. Gibsen, Mrs. Julia Overman, Mrs. Minta Love, Mrs. Emma Thomas.

After the convention had joined in singing "Some Glad Day" Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley, State Vice-President, presided, while the State President, Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger gave her annual address.

As the president closed her address, Mrs. William Stump of Anderson stepped forward and in an impressive manner recited the following tribute to Mrs. Vayhinger, which had been composed by Mr. Sherman Makepeace also of Anderson.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. CULLA VAYHINGER.

(President W. C. T. U.)

All Honor to you, our President.

That is battling for a Cause

To emancipate Humanity

From Liquors deadly jaws.

That has blasted many a life

Full of promise, hope and joy

That has blighted happy homes

And ruined many a boy.

God Bless this noble band

Who have toiled, but not in vain

To crush the hideous demon,

Destroyer of soul and brain

God bless the Patient women

The fairest of our Land

Who 'gainst the Liquor Traffic

Firmly took their stand.

Now the tide is turning.

Victory is in sight

Toil on, toil on dear Sisters

The HARVEST NOW IS RIPE.

King Alcohol is vanishing

And Weak'ning in the fight

All honor to you, Ribboners

Valiant workers, staunch and true

Our gallant Hosts are Marching

We, of the W. C. T. U.

Meager was our beginning
 But as the years went by
 Our courage and hopes were strengthened
 As State after State went DRY.
 We are on the eve of Victory
 When, "Old King ALCOHOL" must die.

Honor is to you, dear sister
 To you and the Christian Host
 That have waged this righteous battle
 That at times seemed almost lost.
 But now the Vict'rys certain
 The goal we soon will gain
 The curse that blighted manhood
 Will go—never to return again.

Moved that this comprehensive and splendid address be printed in the State Minutes and that separate copies be printed at once, and that one copy be sent to each Congressman and Senator and to every Local Union, and that the State President or some one appointed by her read this address before the soldiers stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison. Motion prevailed.

RESOLUTIONS

PREAMBLE

At this, the forty-fourth Annual Convention of the Indiana State Woman's Christian Temperance Union, we reverently acknowledge the guidance of our Heavenly Father during the past year and renew our allegiance to the King of Kings. Inspired by past victories and patriotic zeal we reaffirm our loyalty to the principles of total abstinence and prohibition and pledge ourselves to renewed efforts against the legalized liquor traffic.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

The tests and sacrifices of war time demonstrate as never before the necessity for total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the State and Nation.

We respectfully urge all citizens at home to become total abstainers during the period of the war in order to conserve both the food supply and our economic and physical resources.

We congratulate ourselves that our government has provided regulations whereby the selling of liquors to soldiers is prohibited, but we deplore the fact that this same government not only sanctions the use of tobacco but is furnishing the same as a war ration, and we protest against this wilful waste of money, and the misuse of the land on which it is raised.

PROHIBITION.

We rejoice that the manufacture of distilled liquors for beverage purposes has been prohibited. We regret that the sale was not included in the prohibition and that a large supply for consumption still exists.

We respectfully request our President to commandeere all distilled liquors in bond for redistillation that alcohol may be used for governmental purposes and to stop the manufacture of wine and beer, thereby saving twice the amount of food supply as was conserved by the prohibition of the distillation of grain.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.

We rejoice that the senate has voted to submit a National Constitutional Prohibition Amendment. We respectfully ask all Indiana members of the House of Representatives to vote for its submission and pledge our selves to use our utmost efforts and influence to aid in securing it.

SUFFRAGE

For more than thirty years we have officially endorsed and worked for the enfranchisement of women and we rejoice in the passage of a partial suffrage law. We regret the unwise picketing at Washington but pledge our efforts to the passage of the federal amendment.

LABOR.

Lest the substitution of woman's work for that of men may result in the lowering of wages, thus affecting the welfare of the workers and causing serious re-adjustment after the war, we favor the creating of safe standards of new work for women, that the principle of equal pay for equal work may be established.

PURITY.

We again emphasize our belief in a single standard of morals for men and women, and will do all in our power toward upholding the highest ideals of purity.

CO-OPERATION.

While we believe in co-operating with all organizations formed for the moral and spiritual uplift of humanity, conferring with them in reference to methods and policies, we urge our women to preserve the identity of the W. C. T. U. while working in a common cause.

YOUNG PEOPLE.

We recognize the wonderful force in our young people and the opportunities open to them for activity in temperance work. Therefore we earnestly urge the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to train workers for the Young People's Branch of Loyal Temperance Legion.

COURTESIES.

The generous hospitality and welcome which has been extended by the Madison County Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the churches, the commercial club, the press, and citizens of Anderson, has been greatly appreciated by the members of this convention and we express our heartfelt thanks to every one who has assisted in making this convention a success.

MISS MARTHA SPEICHER, Chairman.
MRS. MARTHA GIPE.
MRS. JOEL WELTY.
MRS. MARY ELY.
MRS. BELLE SCHULTZ.

Report of State Lecturers

Dear Comrades:

I have not been able to accomplish all I hoped for under the inspiration of Mother National, but I am glad to report our Prohibition battle line moving rapidly toward Washington, and the Capitol will fall into the hands of our advance guard November 1. We are holding all trenches taken, and with the ballot in the hands of about 8,000,000 women we ought to elect a Prohibition President, in 1920, for the people realize that Kaiser Rum is more to be feared than Kaiser William.

I have spent much time in the field this year, giving one month to organization and one week each to Kentucky and Ohio.

I addressed 20 Sunday Schools, 4 Sunday School Conventions, 22 High Schools, 3 High School Commencements, 4 Chautauquas, 3 Church Picnics, 37 Farmers' Meetings, 5 Home Economics Classes, 6 Forums for voters.

Organized one County and 9 Local Unions.

Held 10 Institutes. Secured 286 active, 23 honorary members. 19 subscriptions to Union Signal, 2 to Patriotic Phalanx, 2 to National Enquirer, 1 to Woman's Journal, 25 to Young Crusader.

Helped the Dry Federation line up the field forces to move on our State Capitol during the Session of the General Assembly.

The only star of hope that I see in the murky cloud of war is that out of the agony and blood of a brave, heroic sacrifice will come freedom to the oppressed of Europe and Prohibition to our own dear land.

—ELIZABETH T. STANLEY.

Organizers' Reports

It is impossible to calculate the time given to the work this year. There has been much going to and fro and a great variety of subjects considered and plans executed. Collecting funds for the National Convention expenses, writing letters to members of the legislature and carrying petitions for our special bills, encouraging the government economy plan and the making of comfort kits for our soldier boys. I have specialized on the course of study in Civil Government and have taught 62 classes, have held 6 all-day institutes, organized 1 union, have made 23 addresses on scientific temperance and the cigarette to young peoples meetings, public schools and Sunday schools. Have distributed 300 temperance and cigarette blotters, and have placed 33 Bible lessons in the hands of public school teachers, Sunday school teachers and soldier boys.

MATTIE CAMMACK GIBSON.

Dear Comrades:

I am sure you will rejoice with me in the fact that the cause of Temperance is being indelibly fixed in the minds and hearts of my people, through and by the educational facilities of our organization. Observation, contact and experience the perfect teacher, is causing hundreds to acknowledge the fact, that alcohol is the greatest foe to humanity ever known, and fully realizing that we are our brother's keeper they are up and doing with all their might things that will help to annihilate the liquor traffic and its kindred evils. All efforts made to curtail or prohibit the use of intoxicating liquors are meeting with the hearty approval of a large majority of my people throughout our state. Nine years ago, when you placed me in the field, there were only three (3) unions in the state composed of colored women. Since that time, through the help of our Heavenly Father, we have organized fifty-two (52) unions—twenty-four (24) are making strenuous efforts to stick to the principles of our organization, have adopted its plans and will no doubt soon prove to be giants in the cause of Prohibition, while the remaining twenty-eight (28) are inactive, many women and men, who were members of the unions, are adherents to the principles of our cause, aiding churches and other organizations to promote temperance.

Suffrage.

Furthermore, dear comrades, no women in our state have excelled the women of my race in hailing with glad heart the possibility of equal franchise with men of our state. Hundreds are members of classes formed to glean concerning how to obtain citizenship and when once in their grasp, as it were, to prove themselves Christian citizens. Many who have not joined classes, stand ready to fall in line, cast a ballot for those who will unflinchingly stand for nation wide prohibition, and woman's complete emancipation. During the year, through the help of our Heavenly Father, I have gone forward with pleasure, and have succeeded in the promotion of the cause we have espoused as follows:

MRS. CULLA J. VAYHINGER
State President, Upland, Indiana

President's Annual Address

My Dear Co-Workers:

We have met today in our forty-fourth annual convention in this beautiful little city, in one of the garden spots of Indiana. We meet under peculiar circumstances. It has been a year of unprecedented work and victories. We have achieved two of the great objectives toward which we have struggled and for which we have prayed ever since our organization in 1874. Ordinarily this would be a jubilee convention and, like Miriam of old, we would come with timbrel in hand and all the women would join in the song and dance, crying, "sing ye to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea," for the enemy which we have fought so many years has been checked in his destructive drive across our great state and after April 2nd, 1918, no more boys and girls will be trampled under his merciless iron hoofs, no more men and women will be ridden down by him under the sanction of law in Indiana. Then this horse and his rider will, like Pharaoh and his horsemen, be buried out of sight because God's ear has caught the cry of defenseless women and children who have been sacrificed ever since Indiana became a state that the rum maker and the rum seller might prosper and our state coffers might be filled with gold. He has heard the intercessory prayers of men and women who years ago caught the import of the woe pronounced by God, through the mouth of Isaiah the prophet, upon the triple alliance, the dram drinker, the dram seller and the justifier of the dram seller, and believed all equally guilty; that God could not damn and send to an eternal hell the first two, against whom he had pronounced this woe and glorify and send to an eternal heaven the third party in this alliance.

This education and agitation has been kept up until the men of our legislature have by their votes given us State-Wide Prohibition.

We rejoice—we shout for joy—we are each one glad we have been permitted to have some part in this fight, but in the midst of our song of victory there bursts upon our ears the roll of the war drum, which last year was wafted to us from Europe by the winds of the Atlantic, but today it is borne to us by the zephyrs from the pine trees of Maine, the Cypress swamp of Florida and the Weeping Willow of California. The bugle has sounded the Reveille, calling our nation from sleep and from our peaceful pursuits, and from our homes have marched our boys—the potential fathers and citizens—upon whose strong young shoulders we had expected to lay the responsibilities of the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ and the burdens of the state. Many of you sitting before me understand the anguish of "The Recruit's Mother" as voiced by Herman Donner:

As children on the sunlit seashore play,
And build their facile castles out
of sand,
In the intense achievement of the hand
Seeing their happiest dreams win
transient sway,
Then watch the heedless waters
sweep away
All their fond structures at the tides' command;
So I, bereft yet uncomplaining,
stand,
Before my leveled towers of yesterday.
For he is gone, my eldest born, the pride
Of oh! so many fortune-planning
years;
Yet should his life, adventured on war's tide,
Sink in his country's service—
hush, my fears!--
Let me be strong to say his dying dried
Through deathless deed his stricken mother's tears!

When we last met, we were planning to entertain the great National convention and we were as much excited over the coming of our distinguished guests as is a young housekeeper over her first visitors, for it was the first time we ever had that honor. We were wondering how we would find enough for them to eat, and a place to stay and how we would ever raise the necessary funds to pay the cost of their entertainment. As we look back over the time which they spent with us, we feel that we were more than repaid for what their coming cost us and that we are really indebted to them for coming. Men and women caught a vision of our work which they had never had before, and I am sure the National W. C. T. U. convention played no small part in bringing us prohibition. I want to thank every loyal white-ribboner for her hearty co-operation at that time, and remind you that it was the surplus funds left from our convention fund, that helped us finance our legislative campaign. We can say to Mother National, "we're glad you came to see us, come again, come again."

Victories Won

On September 8th, John Barleycorn received a blow which disabled him immeasurably and caused his friends to hasten to his bedside with words of sympathy and hopes for his speedy recovery. On that day under the workings of the Food Control Bill, over six hundred distilleries ceased the manufacture of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes. The business can not long continue with production discontinued. Many distilleries will continue and manufacture de-natured alcohol to be used in the various commodities where alcohol seems necessary. Revenue records show that during 1916 nearly eleven million gallons were shipped to the allies for powder manufacture. What the people of the United States would not do because it was right, they have been compelled to do as a "War necessity." We are hoping and praying that the war may soon close but we are praying earnestly that this by-product of the war, Prohibition, may continue as long as we are a nation.

On November 1st, all licensed saloons and liquor establishments in the District of Columbia will be closed, and no liquor advertising can be posted or circulated within the District. The liquor forces circulated the report that prohibition was foisted upon the residents of the District without their consent. To refute this a monster parade is being planned to celebrate the cleaning up of our capital city.

The tax on distilled liquors has been raised from one dollar ten to three twenty per gallon and on beer, from one fifty to three dollars per barrel. Under ordinary conditions we would not consider this a victory, but with near-prohibition we hope this is a good thing.

The Constitutional Prohibition Amendment resolution passed the Senate by a vote of sixty-five to twenty, a magnificent and unexpected majority. It is hoped that the House will take it up in December. An amendment was added placing a six year limit on its ratification by the state legislatures. While we regret this, yet with twenty-six states now in the dry column and others on the way, we will write this measure into our Federal constitution and thus end the struggle.

Prohibition was written into the law granting citizenship to Porto Rico, with a provision that within five years ten per cent. of the citizens might petition an election and a majority of the voters might repeal it. A petition was filed and the enemy carried on a most vigorous campaign. Miss Anna Robbins, National W. C. T. U. organizer, had been on the field and organized unions and began the work among the young people and the children. The National sent Rev. Paul Barnhart and Mr. and Mrs. Ortiz as speakers with splendid results. So few of the Porto Ricans can read, that the campaign was carried on by posters rather than with literature. The coconut, the leading staple of the islands, was taken as the symbol of the dries and the bottle the symbol of the wets. When the votes were counted, the coconut had won by a majority of thirty-seven thousand, so in March, 1918, the Porto Ricans will be freed from the degenerating influence of alcohol.

Since our last meeting, Alaska has voted dry. It being a territory it was necessary for Congress to ratify the vote, which it did, and after January 1st, 1918, bone dry prohibition will prevail.

Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana and Michigan all have come into the prohibition column by constitutional amendment. Along with Indiana, has come Utah, and New Hampshire with statutory prohibition, making twenty-six states and two territories.

Five years ago few dared to even dream of such victories.

Our Legislative Campaign.

Last November a call was sent to all state-wide organizations which had declared for State-Wide Prohibition to meet in Indianapolis for the purpose of discussing plans for the Legislative Campaign for statutory Prohibition. A number of organizations responded and a federation of these was formed and called the Indiana Dry Federation. Officers were elected, state headquarters were opened in the Traction Terminal building in Indianapolis and until the close of the Legislature a most vigorous campaign was waged. W. E. Carpenter of Brazil and Dr. Homer J. Hall of Franklin gave of their long experience to the cause. Horace Herr, editor of the Indiana Forum, served as Executive Secretary and brought to that office a wide, varied and valuable experience as a newspaper man. The machinery of all of the federated societies was put in motion and such pressure was brought to bear on the Legislature that men who had polled at the opening of the session as opposed to the bill, supported it when the vote was taken. To no one organization belongs the credit for this great victory, but rather to the united efforts of all societies. The hearty response by the people of the state to the call of the steering committee for a great demonstration in the capitol on the day before the vote was taken had much to do with it. Never in all the history of Indiana, have so many men and women gathered at their capitol and demanded the passage of a bill. Howard and Tippecanoe counties sent brass bands to lead their citizens in their march for prohibition. All day long men and women waited and visited with their representatives, to whom the voters had delegated the power to vote for them. At noon all gathered in the rotunda and a great mass meeting was held, when the bands played and our governor, Senator Mercer of Miami county, Emerson Ballard and your president spoke. When the vote was not taken that day, hundreds spent the night in the city and by seven-thirty o'clock the next morning were at the doors of the senate chamber.

The capitol rang with their christian songs as they waited for these to open. When the vote was finally taken and the result announced, the enthusiasm knew no bounds. Many wept for joy, but we remembered it was "Not by might nor by power but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts," and praised Him for the victory.

There were three bills before the legislature in which the W. C. T. U. was especially interested and for which we worked—the Constitutional Convention Bill, Prohibition Bill and Partial Suffrage Bill. The passage of the first one, helped to the passage of the second. When the Constitutional Convention and Prohibition Bills were passed, the dry forces said: "We must have the votes of women to help us write prohibition into the new constitution," so the Dry Federation and Anti-Saloon League helped in our fight for the ballot.

The Supreme Court decided that the Legislature had no right to call a Constitutional Convention. The need of a new constitution is more apparent than ever and we will continue to agitate until we get it.

I desire to mention at this time the splendid service rendered us by the Indianapolis daily papers—the News, Forum, Times and Star. It is not often that reformers are so fortunate as were we in having the great dailies of the state with us. I wish time and space would permit me to mention editors and reporters by name, but suffice it to say we owe them a debt of gratitude which I am sure we will remember.

We presented the same Partial Suffrage Bill which we presented two years ago with the addition of the right to vote for delegates to the Constitutional Convention. The presentation of the Prohibition and the Woman Suffrage bills so close together gave opportunity for the demonstration of the fact stated so many times by our women, that the same crowd opposed both of these reforms. At the joint hearing on the Suffrage bill, the "antis" were represented by a woman from Massachusetts and a man from Iowa, both salaried, and expenses paid by some organization which feared for the safety of the state, if Indiana men were foolish enough to put the ballot into the hands of Indiana women. The presumption of these two visitors in trying to dictate the policy of the state and the absence of any argument against Woman Suffrage made votes for our cause.

Our law has been attacked by the courts, but even should the Supreme Court decide against us, they can only delay and not prevent the placing of the ballot in our hands.

This has been the most strenuous year of our history. For four and one-half months your president stayed in Indianapolis, representing as best she could, the twelve thousand women in our organization, probably some mistakes were made but they were of the head and not the heart.

Suffrage.

We have recounted the long strides taken by the nations in their march toward prohibition. Equally rapid has been the advance of the Woman Suffrage hosts of the world. The British Parliament will soon bestow Parliamentary Suffrage upon the women of Great Britain. Canada's provinces are following one another in quick succession in the enfranchisement of their women. A few years ago the former Czar of all the Russias was signing papers which meant the deportation of his most independent and democratic subjects to that land of a living death, Siberia. Among the bloody foot-prints on the snow and ice were those of women who gladly suffered in the desert or in the subterranean mines with the brave men of Russia, because they dared speak with them for the freedom of all men to participate in the government. We read the story of that matchless heroine, Madame Catherine Breshkovisky, the daughter of a Russian nobleman who at sixteen years of age vowed her love for and offered her services to the down trodden peasants of Russia. This vow she kept, leaving her life of ease and luxury she shared the food and hardships of the persecuted serfs. She felt they must be educated and prepared for self-government for she said, in time their emancipation will come. The government felt that it was better for autocracy to keep them in ignorance, so all schools were closed to them. This young girl disguised herself as a peasant, and went among them teaching them unofficially. Night found her in their rude mud huts sharing their poverty that they might share her knowledge. She was betrayed, arrested and kept in solitary confinement in St. Petersburg for two years, then came the exile to Siberia and she was sent to the Kara mines. She traveled five thousand miles in a springless wagon or on foot. She always led the procession. They passed heaps of bodies by the road side, bodies of exiles who had died on the road. She was compelled to walk all night over frozen ground and suffering untold agony, yet she was always happy, because she had for companions the noblest men and women of Russia. She had before her eye continually a free Russia with no Czar to oppress. She said, "We may die in exile, our children may die in exile, but something must come of it at last." She was permitted to return to Russia after thirty-three years of a living death and while her hair had grown grey and her face lined, neither her body or spirit were broken. Upon her return she joined the Social Revolutionists and spoke for the ownership of the ground by the people rather than by the Czar. She declared that every man should have a voice in the government. Again she was arrested, all bail for her was refused because the minister said she was too clever and dangerous a woman to be given her freedom. In 1910 her second exile began and there she suffered. Why? Because of any crime which she had committed? No, but because she dared say that the land which God created should belong to his creatures, and not to any self-made potentate. That the right of choice in government was inherent in man, and not a right to be granted by another. Now, while the former Czar sits among the bleaching bones of Russian patriots in Siberia, two of the three great political parties of Russia are committed not only to male suffrage but to the right of women to participate in some measure in government. Russia has just sent a commission to this country and it is the only one sent thus far that has included women.

Writers in touch with the German situation say that even Germany will emerge from this struggle with some form of suffrage for the women of the empire. This war will probably prove two things—first, that kings have no divine right to rule over subjects, and secondly, that men have no divine right to rule over women. The women of the world have surely earned their suffrage. Never again will any man dare advance the old argument that women must not vote because they cannot fight when every nation, not excluding our own, is placing the burden of the war upon the man or woman who plants in the trenches as well as on the man or woman who fights in the trenches. The women and girls in the munitions and great war supply factories must bear with the men behind the guns the responsibility for the success or failure of our cause. If only fighters are allowed to be voters, then only voters should be allowed to become fighters. This would mean a withdrawal of, not only the women from the prosecution of the war, but thousands of our bravest boys would lay down their arms, take off their khaki and come home to mother.

The women now have full suffrage in twelve states and partial suffrage in nearly every other state in the union. The woman suffrage amendment in Maine failed to carry but a large per cent. of the voters failed to cast their ballots. The indifference of the voters at such an election surely indicates that men are more interested in men and parties than in government issues and policies. It is true there were other subjects to be discussed, such as the war, short crops, high cost of potatoes and government control of wheat, and yet in the wake of this war will come great problems in reconstruction; burdens are and will be laid upon women equally with men, and if American men are to go to Europe in order to help establish World Democracy, it might be well before they start, to begin the good work and grant this right to their American sisters.

We must increase our efforts for the passage of the Anthony Amendment to the Federal Constitution. This resolution was reported favorably by the committee and we are hoping it will come up and be passed in December.

War Problems and War Work.

In time of peace the Woman's Christian Temperance Union framed its Declaration of Principles and outlined its policy and plan of work. We declared ourselves as believing in the coming of the Kingdom of the Prince of Peace; in a single standard of purity for both men and women; in freedom of thought and opportunity for expression of opinion regardless of sex; in a living wage for all who toil; in the prohibition of the liquor traffic; in courts of conciliation and arbitration. The knot of white ribbon on a woman's breast proclaims all this to be her creed. Through forty-four years of comparative peace, we have been working and praying that all these principles might be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land.

Today amid the clash of arms and the roar of battle, we still believe that our Christ, this Prince of Peace, is the Dynamical Prince of the world's history; that while czars and kings may have their day to bless and destroy, yet "the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ and He shall reign forever and ever;" that the throne which John the Revelator saw, on which sat one before whom the four beasts fell down and cried, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was and is and is to come" and at whose feet the four and twenty elders cast their crowns, crying, "thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power, for thou hast created all things and for thy pleasure they are and were created"—this throne will be established in the hearts of men and swords shall be beaten into plow-shares and spears into pruning hooks and nations shall learn war no more forever." International disputes will be settled without recourse to the weapons of the savage and barbarian, but by a method becoming intelligent and humane peoples.

The triumph of mind over matter has brought the nations of the earth so close together, that a jar in one, disturbs the equilibrium of all. Commercial rivalry has become so intense, that nations will yield to no one nation the title of "mistress of the seas." The fire of democracy has been kindled in so many breasts, that the struggle of the masses upward from serfdom, in any nation, starts a wave which breaks on the shore of every democracy and sweeps its men and women into the struggle. The very condition of nearness and interdependence which has made it possible to establish our organization in fifty-two countries of the globe, has become the occasion for this world conflict.

From day to day the terrible kaleidoscopic world cataclasm shifts and changes with such rapidity that the head grows dizzy and the heart faint. Races chase one another across the canvass at the point of the bayonet. Works of art, science and letters which it has taken centuries to give to the world, perish in a moment in the fiery furnace kindled by man's hate. Boundary lines are being broken up and new ones are being established and are being laid in human skeletons.

Can our organization, organized to carry on a peaceful warfare against the evils which attack men, women and children adapt its machinery to the needs of the hour, fit its wheels into the wheels of the many other organizations of the country, so as to add power and speed to the great mechanism which has been set in motion to bring help to our government in the winning of this war and the relief of its victims? I say it can be done and our work which was necessary in time of peace, becomes doubly necessary in time of war. A door of opportunity has swung open for many of our departments, such as has never opened in our history, and this wrath of man may be made to work the glory of God.

We have had our department of Household Economics for years. Our women have talked of the relative values of foods and tried to train for food economy and thrift. We have taught that it is a sin to waste the foodstuffs which God has given us in such abundance or to feed the body on those things which do not build tissue or furnish power for service. Our boys and girls in the Loyal Temperance Legion and the children in the public schools, through the Scientific Temperance teaching, which our organization was instrumental in giving to them, all have been taught these things. Now the first service asked of the women is for food conservation. Herbert Hoover, national food director, said a few weeks ago: "The wolf is at the door of the world. We, in our abundance, our undeveloped resources, our wastage and our extravagance, hold it in our power and ours alone to keep this wolf from the door. It is a problem wider than the country; it is a problem of humanity. We waste in food more than a billion of dollars. The women of America have never failed to answer such a call as comes to them now. The saving of food is within their sphere, and without food conservation we can not win the war."

This is practical work in which we are interested, because we have been studying it in its various aspects in relation to our work. We are ready to do our bit in cheating the garbage pail of its contents, by urging every woman to use the bits of left over food, preparing it in a palatable and healthful manner. We realize that if the government's kitchen suggestions are worked, it must be by the women and we stand ready to help work them, so far as practicable.

"We are ready to help promote meatless, wheatless, pieless, cakeless (and it looks now as if it would have to be cornless) days. We are ready to take our full share of responsibility in this conservation, but we do feel like asking that a true balance of responsibility in this conservation be found and maintained. These masculine leaders urge us to economize in dress, in food and in the luxuries of life. We are willing, but at the same time they tell us that the boys on the field enjoy and must have tobacco to smoke. I have noticed no appreciable decrease in the smoke on our home streets or in our public buildings because of this "need" on the part of our soldiers. I have not met one man who has sacrificed one cigar of his daily allowance on the altars of his patriotism that the "Sammy" might have this "cure for homesickness."

We will help the government to win the war by our small economies, in each home, but we propose to ask the government in turn to see that these economies are not lost by the vast waste through inadequate means for the distribution and marketing of the American foodstuffs through the destruction of fruit and vegetables in order to keep up the prices, as has been done, without interference, in years gone by, or through food gambling by which bulls and bears fatten while the laboring classes starve, or through the use of it in the manufacture of that which makes men and women less efficient as wealth producers and our army less effective in the field.

We appreciate the work done by our own governor to remedy the condition in Indiana, and rejoice that he has been spared to complete the work so splendidly begun.

In time of peace, the W. C. T. U. organized its department of work among soldiers and sailors. For more than thirty years we have been furnishing comfort bags for those engaged in military service. We must continue this work and sacrifice for it as never before. We must give to fill these bags until we feel it. We must not only use our spare time in the work, but we must spare time. Every boy going out from your community must be supplied with this little homey, necessary comfort, and this has been our work for so long we can not afford to leave for another organization to do. Then the Indiana boys who are in the navy are at the Great Lakes training station and these boys must have the bags before they leave there. The Illinois W. C. T. U. is willing to see to the distribution of these, if we will send them to their headquarters.

I am delighted with your splendid response to the call for arm or leg bandages of many tails. In expressing her gratitude for the help of the American women in making these, Mrs. Walter Mulliner, secretary of the British War Relief Association, enclosed a letter from the private secretary of the Queen of England, saying, "The Queen is much touched by the kindly thought which has prompted this service, and she desires me to assure the members that the generous and useful comforts will be highly appreciated by our soldiers and sailors."

Our first white ribbon ambulance has gone to the front in France and a second one is ready to go to Russia. These were all equipped with mitts, blankets and pillows. The boys in khaki who received the first one, pronounced it a "dream" and a "dandy." The young man who drives the ambulance is a former president of a Young People's Branch in New York. We are now asked by the United Committee on Temperance Activities in the Army and Navy, of which Miss Anna Gordon is vice-chairman, to furnish sixteen stereomotorgraphs, one for each of the cantonments where the new army is to be mobilized, as our part of the One Hundred Thousand dollars the committee is endeavoring to raise. These machines cost five hundred dollars each. Our Indiana boys go to Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky., and I am sure we want to help buy the machine that is to help educate our boys along temperance and purity lines. Will you not respond speedily and liberally to this call to patriotic service? The men and women who do not belong to the W. C. T. U. will be interested in this project, so ask for personal contributions, give a patriotic concert, be active and people will respond to your enthusiastic activity and help you do this work, and incidentally become interested in our organization.

Wherever recreation rooms for the soldiers and sailors have been opened, they have been a real blessing not only to the boys but to the W. C. T. U. conducting them. Massachusetts bought an acre of ground and a large dwelling house for this use. There is room for croquet, tennis, a garden and various out-of-door amusements; for a reading room, evening meetings, and socials on the inside. They are planning to make this a real home for the soldier who needs it. Many of the boys who have enjoyed the hospitality of the women in these rooms have written back to express their gratitude for the help which they have received. The following little poem was written by young Robert E. Lee, a grandson of the great southern general and was sent to the matron of one of these homes:

You think it is a little thing
That you to our lone lives should bring
These nights of song.
No matter what has been our past,
These happy hours until the last
Will linger long.
It is no little thing for you

To volunteer with courage true
To do your part;
Your love for us, by some unseen,
Has brought to us this pleasure keen
To cheer our heart,
When side by side we take our chance
To live or die in bloody France,
For right and you; then never fear,
You here at home, that we'll forget,
Where'er we roam, the W. C. T. U.

Fort Benjamin Harrison needs the Indiana W. C. T. U. and should have us. What can we do to meet the need? Pray over it and ask the Lord to guide us to the right plan.

Our organization has not only been looking after the physical comforts of the soldiers, but we have been watching the moral conditions which surrounded both the army and the navy. Through our efforts, liquor was banished from the army canteen. When we found that our boys on the border or in the camp were surrounded by prostitutes, sent there by a trade that expected to fatten off the personal indulgences of those boys, ours was the first organization to make the condition public and to demand that the government clean up about the camps. Not that these prostitutes were to be examined and certificates of health given them, but that they should be moved out, bag and baggage. We are glad for the splendid part the W. C. T. U. played in the clean-up of Terre Haute. In this field of moral conservation, the young women can render true patriotic service by maintaining the highest standard of moral excellence. We should call attention of mothers and the public generally to the fact that Uncle Sam's uniform has a peculiar allurements for young girls. We can not explain it, but it is never the less a fact, that often young girls who are dignified, reserved and modest with their young men acquaintances, find it easy to lay aside all formalities when they meet a young man in uniform. We do not believe this due to any base quality in the nature, but to a desire to please the one who is her ideal of patriotism and sacrifice, because to her mind the uniform stands for these things. In this country fifty thousand persons vanish every year. What becomes of them, nobody knows. Most of these are young girls. A few months ago, the body of a delicate young girl was carried to the morgue in one of our cities to be identified. During the day, more than five hundred fathers and mothers came, hoping to recognize in the form, that of a missing daughter. Womanhood is more exposed than ever. It comes with war, first, because as I have said, of the attitude of young girls toward the uniform; secondly, because of the loosening of the restraints of home life and home ties by those in uniform. For the sake of the boys as well as the girls, we need to scatter our literature telling them of their danger. Dr. Elliott, ex-president of Harvard University, wrote to the New York Evening Post recently the following letter:

"The failure of the French government to protect her soldiers from these evils (vice and alcoholism) is the gravest error that government has committed; for these vices have proved more destructive to the French people since August, 1914, than all the German artillery rifles, hand grenades, poisonous gases and fire blasts. The killed and wounded by shot and shell transmit no poison to their families and descendants—the victims of alcohol and prostitution do.

A friendly desire to refrain from criticising France and the committee on Public Information which deprecates the publication of material criticising our allies, has all but prevented discussion of the situation behind the French lines, in spite of the figures on the incidence of venereal disease among the Canadian and Australian troops. But it has given the gravest concern to Social Hygienists, to the Y. M. C. A. and now to General Pershing and his staff.

The situation seems to be that with our restrictions on the sale of liquor and on the social conditions of communities in which training camps are established, we shall send to Europe the cleanest troops since the time of Cromwell's army.

At the front they will be immediately and completely exposed to the results of the French policy of Laissezfaire in all things sexual. And France is so sensitive to discussion of her morals and manners that no one has, as yet, thought of a way out."

If we cannot think of "a way out" for France we can at least fortress our own boys by our prayers and teaching and by putting into our Comfort Bags the Purity Pledge, urging the soldier to sign it, but if our boys must go to France, should the sensitiveness of France on the criticism of her morals and manners prevent our urgent demand for more moral surroundings for our soldiers, many of whom are not out of their teens and are wards of America instead of citizens? Girls should not be permitted to hang around army camps where they have no business and where they are not wanted by either officers or enlisted men.

In his Flag Day speech, President Wilson said: "We are about to bid thousands, hundreds of thousands, it may be millions of our men, the young, the strong, the capable men of the nation, to go forth and die beneath the flag in fields of blood far away. Probably millions of men will wage war in Europe. Other millions will willingly divert their creative energies to occupations outside the battle field, and yet be as directly concerned in the prosecution of the war. Millions of women will be needed to replace the vocations of men in industry and in the field of government. Secretary Redfield has issued instructions to his division and bureau chiefs that it will be the policy of the department of commerce during the war and until further notice, in occupations where eligible lists of women exist, to prefer women as far as possible. Other departments are acting similarly."

Representative Robert Y. Thomas Jr. of Kentucky championed the cause of the women by asking equal pay for equal work. He said: "Two-thirds of the employees in the Civil Service could enlist in the army and their services not be missed. Women who need the work could be employed to fill their places and would fill them as well or better than men. This is notably true in the stenographic and typewriting department. And yet the government holds examinations for this service to which the women are not admitted. This is a rank injustice. Women are usually more industrious, more faithful, more competent, more truthful and more dependable than men and should at least be given an equal opportunity in all examinations."

Women must and will be used not only in the government service, but they are being used by the railroads and street cars to take the place of enlisted men; in the offices and factories to do work which they have never done before. We should urge two things: first, that these women should receive equal pay for equal work and that this pay shall be at least a living wage. The exploitation of women, because they are women, by industry is deplorable and most unjust. In the second place we must guard against the tendency, because of the emergency existing to overwork by long hours these women. When English women were first placed in the munitions factories, they worked from twelve to fifteen hours per day and seven days in the week. The women's organizations warned British statesmen that it was a mistake and told them what would happen if it were continued. The women and girls became fagged and the out put was so inferior, that it was necessary, IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE OUTPUT, to lessen the hours and days of service.

The war has brought to us again in an aggravated form, the attack upon our anti-child labor laws. Capital tells us that they need the child to tend the machines in order to cut down the cost of production. Recently a judge in North Carolina declared the law unconstitutional. Many hours of time has been consumed in the House of Representatives in Washington in presenting the claims of industry upon child labor. Child labor is a stain upon the escutcheon of any nation, and it is poor economy, to say nothing of the injustice of the thing, to mortgage the manhood and womanhood of tomorrow to pay our debts of today. This demand for child labor is so persistent at this time that it is going to take a strong hand to hold it in check. We are glad that the children's bureau has been made a part of the department of labor and that it has at its head, a woman, because we feel sure that the clamor of the capitolist cannot drown in her ears the cry of the little "tads" who call upon us for protection against the mad race of modern industrialism. Industrial leaders in Great Britain are standing for the protection of English childhood because they realize the necessity for it. Our department of Temperance and Labor will here find a place for service. Co-operate with the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense in its work for women and children in industry.

The foreign born woman will be the first to suffer because of this new condition when the husband and father is called to the front. Our department of work among foreign speaking people should plan for giving these women at least a speaking acquaintance with our language, through night schools or private teaching in the home.

The fact that from fifty to eighty per cent. of the population of our cities is foreign in birth and speech, do not understand America or American ideals or institutions, makes it imperative that a practical as well as speedy plan of Americanization be found and carried out. First, there must be a friendly feeling created and these foreign born Americans must be taught that the exploitation of any man is un-American; that the flag protects every citizen, no matter where he was born, in his right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," but that this protection does not license him to engage in a pursuit or follow a line of conduct which will deprive another American citizen, whether it be a man, woman or child of this same right. The danger that faces this nation at this time arises from the fact that too long we have allowed the ward boss, the liquor demagogue and the anarchistic agitator to be the teacher among the adult foreign population of our cities and they have, as a result, the wrong idea of American freedom. I hope every union, in a town or city where there is such a population, will have a superintendent of this department, and that she will cooperate with the churches, public schools and all public-spirited organizations in securing a committee that will formulate plans for Americanization of Aliens. The watch-word should be, "one city, one loyalty and one people." The church of the Lord Jesus Christ should give the character to this work.

Is the work for National Prohibition war work? Our Senator Watson says, "the thing now is to win the war and we must not inject anything at this time that will produce discord and dissension." This advice, if adhered to, would permit Congress to adjourn "sine die" and go home to stay until the war is over, for every measure before that body produces more or less discord and will have objectors to its going into effect.

The last ten years has marked a new epoch in prohibition reform. Science has coupled with religion and industry to brand the liquor traffic as the king of all evils, charging it with entering, poisoning and destroying every department of society and every faculty of the human body. It is conceded to be the arch exploiter of mankind and the promoter of vice of every kind. It fattens on the unnatural appetite of men, an appetite which it itself has created, knowing and boasting that when that appetite is once fixed, it will mean dollars to their tills. The life insurance men have recognized this despoiler of health, for their secretary, after summing up our financial loss through it, emphasizes the human waste, beginning with a little time lost over the social glass, and ending at the potters field, the end of a wasted life! The waste of health and life expectations which compels the writer of insurance to charge the moderate drinker a higher rate for insurance than the total abstainer pays and to make it a question, whether any company can afford to take the moderate drinker as a risk. The great military leaders of the world have unsheathed the sword against Kaiser Alcohol, as well as Kaiser William and while they are taking the German trenches and wounding despotism, they are occupying the last ditches and wounding unto certain death, this other enemy of true democracy. General Kitchener said to his soldiers, "Your duty to your country can only be achieved by hard work and by strict sobriety."

General Pershing said, "There was a time when it was a part of a soldier's existence to drink and carouse. That day is passed with the soldier sworn to defend his country's flag and representing the power and dignity of the nation."

Kerensky, after vodka had been prohibited in Russia plead with his troops saying, "Unless soldiers abstain from consumption of stores of liquor which they discover, new Russia will be submerged in a pool of alcohol to the accompaniment of incendiarism and other outrages. I demand that the use of alcohol by soldiers and officers be prevented."

This enemy knows that the court of last appeal has said that it has no inherent right to live, and so, in order to maintain its grip on the nation, it has entered the convention hall and the election booth and has assumed to control and decide our elections, to administer our government and if it can not prevent prohibition legislation, then to trample these laws under its feet, as the arch anarchist which it is, to say "prohibition can not be enforced the people will not stand for it." Self preservation makes it especially watchful and active at this time. There is only one question which interests it when a man announces his candidacy for office, and that is, "what is his attitude to THE TRADE?" The political party to which he belongs matters little, just so he can be used as a tool to advance "THE TRADE."

In time of peace, we as a nation have hugged this monster to our bosom, statesmen have fondled and served it; they have presumed upon the loyalty of the long-suffering prohibitionists to their party and so have turned their backs upon their earnest entreaties in order to serve this disloyal fiend. We have thrown the ermine of law about it, given it the protection of the stars and stripes and for all of this we have received a share of its bloody gold and the election to office, where it held the balance of power, of a set of officers who winked at law violation and fattened on the public treasury. Legislators and executives have said we could not run the government without this revenue and so it has been made to feel that it is a patriotic, necessary institution in that it helps to maintain the government. Suddenly an armed foe from across the waters delivers its ultimatum to Uncle Sam, defies the emblem of liberty and encroaches on the rights of American citizens. An S. O. S. call is sounded by our government. Every man, woman and child is asked to enroll for service for the defense of the flag and the establishment of world democracy. Gold and silver are needed, not only by America, but by the impoverished allies as well, so coffers are opened and contents are poured out until we wonder if the old earth holds in her bosom enough of treasure to replace this offering. Men shuffle and deal out the millions as children rattle and spend their pennies.

But this is not all. If our nation is to do her part in the final struggle between democracy and autocracy, we must give more than gold. The armies of France and England have been mowed down until their depleted ranks must be filled by American soldiers. The whole of American manhood between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one is lined up and the flower of our youth is chosen and marches away to the cantonment for preparation for service. Fathers take their first born and only sons, Abraham like, to the altar of sacrifice. The colleges throw open their doors and countless thousands march with steady tread to the country's call. Factories, farms and offices pour their gift on freedom's altar; all are ready, if need be to die, that democracy may live and triumph.

Not only money and men are needed, but three years of war has left empty granaries and hungry men, women and children must be fed. America has enough to feed them if every American will do his bit by conserving the food supply. Again the call goes out and America gives an unanimous response to the call—no not unanimous, for there is one institution, the one institution in the country that is conceded by all classes of citizens to be a liability and not an asset, even in times of peace—refuses to do its part.

Other captains of industry may turn over their plants and men to the government for the manufacture of munitions and war supplies; the people may establish meatless, pieless, cakeless and wheatless days in order to conserve the food stuffs; women may raise, can and stop the waste in the home but this one institution stands at the elevator and demands its three and one-half billion pounds of food stuffs for beer and its millions of pounds of fruits for wine; soldiers may starve in the trenches while fighting for freedom, the bones of women and children may bleach in the sunshine of Belgium and France, but this "patriotic necessary institution" which "helps maintain the government" grinds and rots in vats the foodstuffs that are necessary to win the war. The demand for workmen in the industries that are necessary to win the war, is unparalleled in history. So great is the need that women are entering the vocations in which the physical strength of men is needed, yet here is an industry that has boasted of the great number of men whom it employs, that refuses to fall into line with the nation's labor conservation scheme and place these men in a useful industry at this crucial time. But why should this institution be the one, privileged institution, exempted from doing its bit and bearing its share of the necessary sacrifice at this crucial hour? Who is to blame?

I want here to pay my tribute of respect to our beloved president and to say that no American has ever had placed upon his shoulders such burdens and bore them more heroically. Washington and Lincoln bore burdens in time of war, but nothing to be compared to those borne by Woodrow Wilson at this time. We owe him a debt of gratitude which can be paid only with patriotic loyalty. This I give him, but I want to review for one moment some data in recent history. On June 23rd the House passed the Food Control Bill with only five dissenting votes, while 356 votes were cast for it. That bill contained this bone-dry clause. "No person shall use any foods, food material or feeds in the production of alcoholic beverages." The bill came to a friendly senate. In the discussion that followed, it became evident that the administration was against the prohibitive clause. On June 29th, the president, to prevent its passage, was compelled to come out in the open and declare himself opposed to it. This he did in the following words: "I regard the immediate passage of the bill as of vital consequence to the safety and defense of the nation. Heated and protracted debate will delay the passage of the bill indefinitely, if the provisions affecting the manufacture of beers and wines are retained and insisted upon. It would undoubtedly be in the interest of the public if the friends of these provisions should consent to their elimination from the present measure." His representatives in Congress gave out as his further reason for interfering with the passage of the bill, that he feared the brewing and wine industries and the users of these products, would rebel and produce discord and dissension, possibly incite insurrection when circumstances make unity so necessary. The Senate carried out the wish of the president by a majority of five votes and the Food Control Bill hung fire for weeks before its final passage and other much discussed provisions were left in it. By this action, the brewers and wine-makers, FOR FEAR THEY WOULD INCITE RIOT, were exempted from service in the president's most urgent call for "food conservation," upon which "depends the result of the war." At the same time Congress clothed the President with power to, whenever he saw fit, stop the use of foodstuffs for making beer and wine. He was also given power to commandeer all distilled liquors. This gives him absolute power of life and death over alcohol. By one stroke of his pen he could give us the thing for which christian men and women have been working and praying for years. He could destroy the greatest enemy to efficiency, the greatest enemy to happiness, the greatest enemy to law and order, the greatest enemy to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. He has called the boys from our homes, the money from our coffers and the women into untried fields of labor that we might take the life of German autocracy and yet he holds the weapon which would destroy an enemy more to be feared by the American people than the kaiser of Germany, and why does he stay his hand. For fear this enemy, petted and protected in time of peace, fattened at the expense of the masses, will in this time of the nation's peril turn and rend the government that has given it protection, if it is compelled to fall into line with the national program for winning the war.

Men are arrested, tried and cast into prison for refusing to be drafted into service in this emergency, shall this notorious slacker not share the same fate? Can the president expect a hearty response to his entreaties for food, money and blood, if he permits this enemy to despoil our people while he has the power to prevent it? Centuries ago God sent a servant to destroy the wicked Agag, king of the Amalekites, with all of their possessions. These God delivered into his hand; but Saul stayed his hand and spared Agag with the best of the sheep and oxen and fattlings. For this disobedience God rejected Saul from being king and gave the kingdom to another. The noon-hour of opportunity has struck for our beloved president—pray that he may not fail us in this crisis.

Is the work for National Prohibition, war work? If a clean national state and municipal life is needed in these troublous times, then it is. If food is needed to win the war, then it is. If an efficient soldiery is needed to win the war, then it is. If efficiency in field, shop, factory is needed to win the war, then it is.

SOME OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

This is the age of organization, and in this particular day, organization has reached high tide for of the number and variety, there is no end. This has come as a result of an effort on the part of men and women to be helpful in this particular crisis. I want to speak of some of these new organizations. In order to avoid duplication of work and waste of energy by the various woman's organizations of the country, the Council of National Defense appointed a Woman's Committee, and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw was made chairman. Mrs. Caroline Fairbanks, President of Indiana State Federation of Clubs was made State Chairman for Indiana, but has been ill and so able to do little. This is the link that binds the W. C. T. U. to the National Government; it is not a new organization, in the ordinary meaning of the term, but is a federation of organizations already existing, in order to urge greater activity in these and to direct those wanting to do work, to the proper organization in which they can spend their energies.

The United Committee on Temperance activities in the Army and Navy, is a federation of Eighteen National Temperance organizations including our own. This committee is raising one hundred thousand dollars to carry on temperance activity in the two branches of our military service, and it is in this connection we are asked as a W. C. T. U. to furnish the sixteen stereo-motorgraphs.

We are to help these two organizations, by and through our W. C. T. U. and in no other way.

The American Red Cross is the organization through which our government plans and does its relief work on the battle line. All of the hospital supplies which pass through Red Cross hands are standardized, and this was necessary. Any woman can become a member of this organization by paying her one dollar to the local Red Cross unit, but this does not carry with it any pledge for service, so she can serve through our own organization. The appeal has gone out from the Red Cross for all women to help sew and knit, so a woman who does not feel able to pay the dollar can serve in this way, whether she is a member or not. We hope our women will help, keeping a record of the work done and reporting it to our superintendent of Work Among Soldiers and Sailors, but of course all garments made, go to the Red Cross. This appeal for service went out from our central office early in the year and I hope every white ribboner has put away her crocheting and tatting, and needless knitting for herself and brings her war-relief knitting or her sewing to the meetings. Remember our Arm or Leg Bandages of Many Tails do not pass through Red Cross hands.

Neither of these three organizations are intended to take the place of the W. C. T. U. but rather to make us more active in our own society, so if any woman is less active in the union because "she is doing Red Cross work," she has missed the real meaning of the Red Cross movement.

No one thing has helped more in our legislative campaigns in the last two sessions, than the organization of the Legislative Council of Indiana Women. It was organized in order to help secure laws helpful to women and children. It has meant the united effort of more than eighty thousand women of the state instead of small groups of women working separately for measures in which only a few were interested. Mrs. Luella F. McWhirter, representing the W. C. T. U. has been re-elected as president. There is no woman in the state better qualified for the place than is she I am sure this federation will have our loyal support as it has had in the past.

PUBLICITY

Our organization is composed of christian women who have been taught and have practiced the virtue of not letting the left hand know what the right hand doeth. This is commendable and I would not want any woman connected with our work to boast of her achievements, for we have promised the Lord all through our years of service, that if He would give us victory, we would not take the credit to ourselves, but would give it all to Him. There is a difference however between boasting of your personal achievements and telling the truth about what has been accomplished by the Lord through our organization. In this day of multiplication of societies, in order to prevent the duplication of organizations, it is necessary to let the public know what we are doing and along what lines we are working. I wonder some times if the W. C. T. U. had published our "do every thing policy" to the world as we should, if it would not have prevented much of this duplication of effort. We who know so well the great worth and work of our organization, some times find it hard to be real patient with the man or woman who knows absolutely nothing about us, no more than a Hottentot from Timbuktu; but possibly we are to blame. The press is the university of the people, and following our policy of which I have spoken, we have had very little in the curriculum of this university. Other organizations doing less than ours, have let the people know about it. We must reach, not only the local papers, but the great dailies and the publications fed by the Associated Press companies. In order to do this we must have a man who is familiar with the business and its methods, and we must have a woman who is familiar with our work and these two must work together.

The newspaper is not the only publicity medium, however, through which we must promote our propaganda. Slides have been and are being prepared by the National W. C. T. U. and other companies and can be used with good results by local unions where a stereopticon is available.

The exhibit is one method which can be used by every union at some time during the year and is a splendid "thought arrester." Appoint a woman in each county to formulate a plan for an exhibit, have the local unions help furnish the material, and then use it in various parts of the county, at farmers' institutes, conventions of organizations kindred to our own, and at Chautauquas.

Our press superintendent, Mrs. Gertrude Campbell, should have the hearty support and help of every union, through a good local superintendent of the department, in placing plate matter and carrying out the plans coming from her fertile brain.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

We all believe the Sunday school necessary to the life and progress of the church. Show me a good live Sunday school, enlisting and using the children and young people and in a few years I will show you a church that is awake to its every opportunity and obligation and is a real power in the community. Show me a W. C. T. U. with a live Loyal Temperance Legion and Young People's Branch and I will in a few years show you a community where the temperance work does not lag nor want for supporters nor voters, and where a single standard of purity is popular. We have again been reminded that the world wants nothing but the best, no matter in what field you look. It wants strength and daring and these are characteristics of youth. When it was necessary to mobilize an army in this country, the young man who had taken his training at the saloon bar or in the red-light district was exempt from service because of "physical disability." Uncle Sam had to have strength and precision and these are not found in the frequenter of these two miasmatic sloughs. The boy who went to the army from the ranks of a good Y. P. B. has on an armor that will serve him well when temptations assail him.

There is something in the young blood that responds to a large program, to an appeal for real, red-blooded service. I believe the community that can get the ear, for a moment, of the young men and women, and show them that the battle line is drawn between the forces that make for manhood and efficiency, on the one hand, and for degeneracy and inefficiency on the other, and that the young men and women are the ones who must decide the conflict, that community can have a Y. P. B.

Enlist them for war service, and show them that real patriotic service must mean war against the greatest foe to the efficiency of our army; that if liquor is so bad that no soldier in uniform can have it, then it is a foe worthy the steel of the strong young man not in uniform. Sixty-five colleges have placed the study of the liquor problem in their curriculum, and give credit for it, so the leaders in this reform in the future will be trained men and women. For the sake of the young people and for the sake of our cause, let us pray that God will raise up leaders for our young people's work, and then help to answer our prayers by saying, "Here am I, send me."

IN MEMORIAM

Each year calls for a memorial service, because each year some of our workers are called from labor to reward, and we bring our flowers of remembrance and offer them as a token of love and appreciation for their valiant service for our great cause. This year has marked the passing of some of our crusaders, many of our active and honorary members as well as our white ribbon recruits. At this time we pray the comforting presence of the Father in the hearts and homes bereft and thank God for the great crowd of witnesses who have labored in our ranks until called into the Father's presence, and who, we believe, are looking over the battlements of Heaven today listening for the shouts of victory as trench after trench is taken from the enemy which they fought for so many years. I believe many of our sainted leaders of Indiana are with us today in spirit, in this our annual gathering, and if they could speak to us, they would urge us to a closer walk with the Christ, that we may reflect His light in such a way that all with whom we come in contact may know that we have been with Christ and learned of Him.

"You think them 'out of reach,' your dead?

Nay, by my own dead, I deny
Yours 'out of reach.' Be comforted;

'Tis not far to die.

"O, by their dear remembered
smiles

And out-held hands and gracious speech,

They wait for us, thousands of miles

This side of 'out of reach.'"

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That each union adopt some definite plan, AND WORK IT AT ONCE, for increasing its membership.

2. That we co-operate with other organizations in suffrage and war relief work, but that we remember that co-operation does not mean doing less in our own organization, but more and better work in our Franchise department and in those departments which are directly connected with war work, such as Work Among Soldiers and Sailors, Temperance and Labor, Flower Mission and Relief Work, Moral Education, Literature, Work among Foreign Speaking People, Household Economics, Anti-Narcotics, and Legislation.

3. If the program as planned by Mother National is to be carried out, there must be united efforts in the states, all must be doing the same thing at the same time, so the Union Signal IS NECESSARY in every union, as this is the paper in which all of these plans appear.

4. That each union make a gift toward the purchase of the stereomotorgraph machines, as soon as possible.

5. That each county fill and give directly to the boys going to the front from the county, a comfort bag, making it from some good, practical pattern, and putting into it the things suggested by the National W. C. T. U. That we make and fill bags for the navy boys and send them as suggested to the Headquarters of the Illinois W. C. T. U., The Temple, Chicago, Ill., and they will see that our Indiana boys who are in training at the Great Lakes receive them.

Make the bandages as described in the October Message and send them as directed in the same paper.

6. That we co-operate heartily in the Food Conservation campaign.

7. That we continue to work for prohibition as a war measure, writing and wiring the president urging him to use the power placed in his hands to prohibit the manufacture and sale of wine and beer and to commandeer at once all distilled liquors for the use of the government in the manufacture of ammunitions.

8. That we work with renewed energy our Anti-Narcotic department, circulating a pledge for abstinence from tobacco and liquor, as a patriotic duty during the war.

9. Funds are needed by the local county, state and national more than ever before. Some systematic plan must be adopted at this convention to increase the treasuries. I recommend a committee of five, with the state treasurer as one member of the committee, who shall present a plan early in the convention, for this purpose.

10. That every union appoint at once a good, live committee who shall get the names of enlisted men in the community and see that they are supplied with literature from home while they are at the front.

11. That we appoint a director of Publicity from among our women, and make definite plans for this work.

That each local and county union appoint a committee on exhibits who shall arrange for exhibits during the year, throughout the county and in adjoining counties where we have no unions, and that these county exhibits be combined in an exhibit for the state convention next year.

12. That we celebrate the going out of the saloons of Indiana, on Sunday, April 7th in an all day meeting of praise and thanksgiving, and that a committee be appointed at this time to prepare a tentative program for that day; that we ask the co-operation of the churches and all organizations that have worked to the end of prohibition.

13. That we work to secure the passage by our next legislature of a measure providing for a vote on calling a constitutional convention.

14. That we work for the passage of the Federal amendment, sending a resolution from this convention to the President and members of congress urging their support of the amendment.

President.

MISS MARY E. WOODARD
Corresponding Secretary, Fountain City, Indiana

Report of Corresponding Secretary

THE YEAR'S MARCH.

Dear Comrades and Friends:

Again our harvest home season is upon us and we have met to rejoice over the wonderful ingathering of sheaves that has resulted from our long years of seed sowing. Truly the promise has been verified to us, that: "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him."

A year ago we were planning for the coming of the National Convention, and our efforts were directed toward making our guests comfortable and happy while they were in our state. White ribboners all over the state gave most loyal support to all our plans, and responded so heartily with funds that after all expenses were met a handsome balance remained in the treasury, which later proved invaluable in the fight for statewide prohibition. Our national guests were royally entertained and went away singing the praises of our capital city and of their comrades of the Hoosier state. Their coming gave a wonderful impetus to our work, and aroused an interest that was a great help in the state-wide campaign that followed.

Near the close of the National Convention a call was issued for a conference of the various temperance organizations for the purpose of forming a "Dry Federation" through which the dry forces might present a united front in the battle for statewide prohibition in the 1917 legislature. Had it not been for this union of forces in the Dry Federation, the prohibition law would not be on our statute books today. "Honor to whom honor is due." While there were many who stood loyally by this new organization and sacrificed both time and money for its success, to no other two persons was the success of the movement due so much as to our beloved president, Mrs. Vayhinger and her valiant coworker, Mrs. Luella McWhirter. These two overcame what seemed to be unsurmountable difficulties, and started the new organization in that wonderful campaign that won for us state-wide prohibition, partial suffrage for women, and a bill providing for the calling of a constitutional convention. Through the tedious days of legislation, these two valiants spent their time and strength in the state house interviewing legislators and doing all they could to secure favorable action until these three bills became law. In token of appreciation of this magnificent leadership, I ask you here and now to rise and give our president and Mrs. McWhirter the Chautauqua salute.

No sooner was the partial suffrage bill passed than women began to ask how they could prepare themselves for intelligent participation in the affairs of government. A study course was prepared and a majority of the unions over the state took up the study of the constitution. Men who at first smiled indulgently on these efforts of the women to inform themselves soon learned that when their wives submissively obeyed the scripture injunction to "ask their husbands at home," said husbands were not prepared to give the needed information. Thus has been awakened in the minds of men in our state a spirit of inquiry that augurs well for more intelligent voting in the future. Great was our disappointment when the supreme court of the state declared the constitutional convention law unconstitutional, but the disappointment has only increased the determination to have a new constitution for our state that will curtail the power of the courts thus to thwart the will of the people.

In the midst of our rejoicing over these victories in our state, the war cloud, which at first seemed no larger than a man's hand, suddenly became dark and ominous. Congress called in extra session, declared that a state of war existed with Germany and set the whole nation astir with preparations for the coming conflict. Our great organization has always stood for the peaceful settlement of all difficulties but in a crisis like this, is not a "slacker." Our machinery was ready so that without loss of time our activities could be directed into new channels and our patriotism find outlet in such service as is consistent with the principles for which we have so long stood. Our young men are called to the colors with no choice but to obey and whatever we can do to make life in camp and in the trenches more tolerable will be rendering an important service to them and to our government. More than one hundred unions have reported sewing for the Red Cross society, making many tailed bandages, knitting socks, sweaters, and wristlets, subscribing to the library fund, sending papers and magazines to the camps, helping with the National Ambulance fund, or the making and filling of comfort kits. No doubt many more of our unions have engaged in this work, as will be shown by the report of our superintendent of work among soldiers and sailors. While these things have been claiming so much of our attention, other lines of our work have not been neglected. Hundreds of letters, telegrams and petitions have been sent to the president and to congress urging National prohibition as a war measure. Membership contests were held by Fairmount, 30th St. Marion, Northeast, Bloomington, Lincolnville, Angola, Ray, Mt Pleasant, St. Joe, Bicknell and Muncie. Attendance contests were held by Back Creek, Bloomington, and Plainfield, while honorary membership contests were held by Back Creek and Marion Central.

Vayhinger sewed for associated charities.

The Hammond unions have done a large amount of relief work among the poor of the city.

New Albany supports two missions where services are held three times a week.

Merom observed Baby Day with thirty babies and their mothers present.

North Wabash sent $20.00 to the ambulance funds and were active in petition work for prohibition and suffrage.

Hartsville sent $5.00 to the Newcastle sufferers after the tornado.

Frances Willard of Union City sent 500 requests to President Wilson for National prohibition. Had a beautiful white float in the parade at their community fair, gave $2.60 for the community Christmas tree, $2.00 to the city's play ground, and sent the Union Signal and Young Crusader to the Public Library and the City Rest Room.

Wawasee Union held a picnic dinner at a Lakeside home and held a bake sale the proceeds of which were $13.00.

Many other good things have been done by the tireless women who wear the white ribbon but they belong to the reports of our Superintendents. The reports farther show that we have 1199 honorary members, and 2,139 Department Superintendents. 2,395 new members have been gained but this increase is largely balanced by the losses, the reports showing that 907 old members have dropped out. 4,155 have signed the total abstinence pledges, 4,204 meetings have been held and 17,175 signatures secured to petitions for State and National Prohibition.

A large number of unions have worked to become banner unions this year, and the following unions have made the necessary 100 points: La-Crosse, Greentown, North Grant, Frances Willard of Ft. Wayne, South Marion Kennard, Boston, Frances Willard of Lafayette, Carp, McColl, Love, Eunice Wilson, Marion Central Kokomo, Reiffsburg, Back Creek, Clinton, Pleasant Lake, Normal City, New Albany, Broad Ripple, South Wabash, Gary, Fairmount, North Wabash, Connersville, Madison, McCurdy of Muncie, Amboy, LaPorte, Warsaw, Muncie, Elkhart, Lafayette, Goshen, Hartford City, Evansville Central, Churubusco.

Several other unions are "near banner" unions and deserve honorable mention as having reached 80 points or over. St. Joe made 94 points, Chrystolite and Jefferson of Grant county each 83, Boswell 82, Kingsley 80, Crystal 86, Kendallville 97, Frankfort 99, Columbia City 82, Palmer of Indianapolis 95.

Miss Sears report will show that 15 unions doubled their membership and are entitled to blue ribbons, while 24 have made 50 per cent gain which puts them in the red ribbon class.

FIELD WORK

Only one National Field worker has been employed in the state this year. Mary Harris Armour spent five days in the state previous to the National Convention, and returned in January for a two weeks lecture tour in the campaign that secured our state-wide prohibition law. She hurled her Phillipics against the liquor traffic and aroused much enthusiasm for the prohibition law.

Mrs. Stanley has been almost constantly in the field, darting here and there over the state and striking blows for suffrage and prohibition.

Mrs. Retta Jones has answered numerous calls over the state and in July made a three weeks tour of the southern part of the state, leaving a trail of new unions behind her.

Mrs. Vayniger spent four and one-half months at Indianapolis preparing for the National Convention and during the sessions of the legislature she spent three weeks in the northern part of the state building up the work. Spoke before two Farmer's Institutes, spoke before the Bartholomew County Teachers' Institute and was on the program of several Chautauquas, anniversary meetings and camp meetings.

Miss Sears spent three days in the field, held three institutes, gained 12 members, visited seven unions and gave out 500 pages of literature.

Your Corresponding Secretary has spent seventeen days in the field, held seven county institutes, organized one county, and made sixteen public addresses.

Mrs. McCurdy has been up and down the state doing great service among her people, which resulted in the organization of 10 new unions.

Forty-two new unions have been organized as follows: The first new union reported for the year was organized at Arcola, Allen county, by Mrs. Martha Ridenour and the L. M. Stevens union.

Mrs. Stanley organized at Hillsboro, Fountain county, Huntsville and New Lisbon in Henry county, Kings Station, Owensville, and Patoka in Gibson county, Waynetown and Ladoga in Montgomery county and Pleasant Grove in Jay county. Mrs. Jones organized at Wanatah, LaPorte county, Nashville and Georgetown, Brown county, Shoals in Martin county, Crandall in Harrison county and New Corydon in Jay county.

Mrs. McCurdy organized at Columbus, Franklin, Greencastle, Terre Haute, Noblesville, French Lick, Lafayette, Rockville, Plainfield and Crawfordsville.

Mrs. Shugart organized Center and North Grant unions and Mrs. Gibson organized Richland township, all of Grant county.

Elston in Tippecanoe county was organized by Mrs. Vayhinger.

Bluffpoint and Pennville in Jay county were organized by Miss Pearl Silvers.

Mrs. S. Russell organized at Ellettsville in Monroe county.

Remington in Jasper county and Mt. Ayr in Newton county were organized by Mrs. Alma Shaw.

Mrs. Jennie Guffey organized at East Columbus in Bartholomew county.

Mrs. Mary V. McConnell organized at East Enterprise in Switzerland county.

Fletcher Place Indianapolis was organized by Mrs. Kroft and Egmont by Mrs. Laura Leonard.

The Plainfield union did some missionary work at Clayton and effected an organization there. Mrs. Ora Cross organized at Colletts Station in Lake county. Miss Mary Woodard organized a county union in Ripley county, and Mrs. Jenner and Mrs. Payne organized at Glenwood in Vanderburg county. A new union was organized at Clear Lake in Steuben county but the organizer did not report.

Our losses in unions and membership have been unusually heavy the last six months of the year owing largely to the unsettled condition of affairs in our nation. Some of our women stirred by the appeals our government has made to our patriotism, have made the mistake of thinking they can serve better in some other organization. Our department work enters every line of Christian service and we can co-operate with other organizations that are doing work in the same lines without losing our identity as the W. C. T. U.

Others have thought that since we have prohibition on our statute books, the work of the W. C. T. U. is done, but never did women make a graver mistake. True we have a statutory prohibition law on our statute books, but we are a long way yet from being a bone dry state. Prohibition in Indiana will never be safe until it is written into our Constitution. Already the liquor men have laid their plans to capture the next legislature, and repeal the law, and eternal vigilance alone can save us from this disaster.

The work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union done? While our nation is allowing thousands of barrels of rum to be shipped to the child nations of Africa, which destroys them like a pestilence, think you it is time to abandon our department of Temperance and Missions? With the tobacco trust sending car loads of cigarettes to China with the rally cry "a cigarette in the mouth of every Chinaman," and with tobacco being thrust upon all the young men who are going to the front, shall we drop our department of anti-narcotics? With the White Slave traffic invading thousands of homes and young girls daily disappearing as though the earth had suddenly opened and swallowed them, is there no more need for the department of moral education and purity?

Will you mothers who are giving your young sons a living sacrifice on the bloody altars of European autocracy say that now is the time to drop our work among soldiers and sailors?

With our National government still in complicity with the liquor traffic through the license system, and the brewers entrenching themselves more firmly behind our government through increase of the revenues they are paying, we should recognize the fact that our duties and responsibilities are not bounded by state lines. Instead of slacking our efforts we should serve notice on our enemies in the language of one of our naval heroes, "We have just begun to fight." We face a year of great opportunities. May we catch a new vision from this mountain top and go back to our homes, with the determination to push the battle until the last stronghold of King Alcohol has fallen, and not only our state and nation, but the whole world is free from the curse of rum.

MARY E. WOODARD, Cor. Secretary.

MISS CLARA M. SEARS
Treasurer, Indianapolis, Indiana

Superintendents' Reports

W. C. T. U. Normal Institutes

INDIANA'S PLAN

Each succeeding year's experience has demonstrated more clearly and practically that the W. C. T. U. Institute can serve us not only as an instructor in methods, as an avenue through which to reach the masses, but as an organizer and builder for our ranks. Taking courage from the good results reached by our general plan, modified for this year, and with a view to meeting our needs for the coming year, we give the following:

PLAN.

An institute in every organized county of our state to consist of two night meetings and one full day institute work.

Each institute to commence at 1:30 p. m. with public meeting at night (medal contest if practicable), followed by one full day of institute, closing with a public meeting at night.

Should the county officers desire to hold a semi-annual county convention, an open parliament for department work, or a county executive meeting, let this be held on the afternoon preceding the first night's meeting,

Should it be deemed best for the work that the leader shall speak at another point in the county on the first night instead of being present at the contest, she may be thus used, providing she can reach the institute in time for the first meeting on the following day.

The plan of sending out special invitations to teachers, ministers, doctors and their wives, and others whom you desire to interest, having proved of great value in the past, it is recommended that it be followed this year, and that where practicable a lunch be served at the church and an invitation be extended there.

Advertise the meetings throughout the county. Send programs to all the churches, asking the pastors to announce the institute. Send programs to private individuals; to women's clubs, extending an invitation. Your state superintendent will gladly furnish you with as many programs as you may need, without charge.

As well as holding an institute in every organized county, it is the desire of the superintendent to enter unorganized counties, thus encouraging the workers and building up the work in every possible way.

Only by the co-operation of the strong counties with the weaker, will it be possible to do this. Let us work together and do our best to help those weak Unions who are "holding the fort" against great odds.

EXPENSES.

To be met by counties, each paying into the Institute fund $10.00. This amount to be raised by a collection at the lecture or a free-will offering at the social meeting, and an admission of 10 cents or more (according to the value of the medal used) at the contest. If the income from these sources does not amount to $10.00 the deficit is to be met by the county treasury or local treasuries combined at the close of the session.

The county holding institute Friday night, Saturday and Saturday night will have the privilege of using the leader on the Sabbath following, permitting her to take the offering only, instead of the three (3) dollars for one service or five for two as in past years.

If, for any reason, an institute should drop out of the schedule, the leader to use the time for organization or in otherwise building up the work, or if she return home for a short vacation, thus increasing the expense of the work, such additional expense should be borne by her.

Institutes to be held in unorganized towns when expedient, with a view of effecting organization, or in such places as the work needs to be strengthened, or where the institute will be helpful to the work as a whole.

County Presidents, with the aid of their executives, to promptly locate their respective institute, and report the places selected to the Superintendent of Institutes by December following the State meeting, that the schedule may be completed and published in due time. If any county fails to do this, it will be inferred that this county wishes the Superintendent to schedule for it. A few counties, at their fall convention, have wisely located their coming institute, subject to any necessary changes.

Watch for announcements in the State paper in regard to this work.

We repeat, do not fail to correspond promptly with the leader of your section in regard to Sabbath service and filling outline program.

County Presidents who, with the co-operation of their executives, will timely develop the foregoing plan in detail, will be surprised at the results reached. As a help to understand this, read and study institute reports in Annual Minutes especially the summary statements of results for a few preceding years. Study this year's report and read the issues of the State paper of the months following the institute work, and see how organizations and members have been added throughout the year.

LOCAL INSTITUTES

Indiana has this year, by the voice of the State Convention, decided to make a strong effort along the line of "Local Institutes." One hundred and fifty Local Institutes this year will greatly increase our membership and will not overburden the County Presidents or the Local Unions.

A program for use in these meetings will be prepared by your State Superintendent who will furnish them to you on your application. Local Institutes to be of one day's duration. Plans for same to be made by County President. County President to be leader of Local Institutes wherever it is possible, but where this cannot be arranged, a State worker can be called, the Union holding the Institute financing this.

It is recommended that the night meeting consist of a Medal Contest—a Symposium on Woman's Suffrage, or National Constitutional Prohibition, or a Debate.

For other information write your State Superintendent.

MRS. ROSE PEARCE, Bicknell, Indiana.

LOCAL INSTITUTES

This coming year we are to work the Local Institute, but this is in no way to take the place of the County Institute.

It is simply to be an incentive to better work for and greater success in the latter. Your State Superintendent will prepare the program and if the County President acts as leader of the Institute and you hold a contest at night, instead of its being a financial burden, it will put money in your treasury. I am confidently hoping that the Local Institute will be such an inspiration to the women that we shall hold an increased number of County Institutes and be able to report a much larger gain in membership than this department has ever done in previous years.

Feel free to write me asking any questions or making any suggestions you please. I shall be glad to receive these, also any topics you may desire placed on the program.

ROSE PEARCE.

NORMAL INSTITUTES

Dear Sisters:

Once more I rejoice because this department shows progress. Never before in its history did the W. C. T. U. have as many calls for service as during 1916 and 1917, but they were equal to the emergency. Sixty (60) County Institutes were held and there have been 25 Local Institutes reported but I feel sure this is not all that were held. I do not think it was understood that your superintendent wanted these reported just as the County Institutes are. Please remember this, in the coming year. Letters have told me of the good results coming from these days spent in the study of our work. Let us have many more in 1918. I shall be glad to receive any suggestions as to subjects for the program which will be sent to the printer in December. Your superintendent wishes to give you the things you most need in your work. She feels she can best do this by learning from you what you desire. Again I want to thank you for your loyalty and helpfulness in this department. Let us make next year bring still greater results.

Lovingly yours,

ROSE PEARCE.

ANTI-NARCOTICS REPORT

The following word has gone out to each of my superintendents: "The next great question before us is the tobacco question. Help us in every way you can so that we may be prepared for the battle." Never before have we been so impressed with the thought that this great issue is looming up before us, ready to engulf us, and nothing but life preservers in the form of good literature, and talks, without any prevarication on the subject, to men, boys and women, will save us. We are facing now the greatest problem those intimately connected with the work have ever met. War has made the hearts of fathers and mothers more tender and the great tobacco trust is taking advantage of this and by letter and through the daily press and other periodicals is urging us to give our means that the boys may not be caused extra suffering because of the lack of the right kind of smoke.

The temperance women throughout the state have decided not only that no tobacco be put in our comfort bags but have asked that the 11,000 acres used for the cultivation of tobacco in our state be used for the raising of foods and fruits that will sustain life instead of a poison that will destroy.

My 43 superintendents have been doing good work, thinking out for themselves many new plans to advance the cause but the one thing I am anxious to have you do this year is to observe Home Visitation Day, getting literature into every home.

Your superintendent has done the regular work of a superintendent, sending out helps to all who would use them.

CHAUTAUQUAS AND SUMMER ASSEMBLIES

The community Chautauqua is becoming a popular form of entertainment, and affords the W. C. T. U. an ever increasing opportunity to get our work before the masses.

At Grandview in Spencer County the W. C. T. U. maintained a rest tent which was decorated with flags, posters and banners. All the speakers referred to the prohibition question and 2,000 pages of literature were distributed.

At the Madison Chautauqua the W. C. T. U. maintained headquarters on the grounds.

At Zion Park assembly the W. C. T. U. furnished the program for one afternoon and at night held a matron's medal contest.

Chautauquas were held at Clinton, Dana and Cayuga in Vermillion County. One lecture was given by a W. C. T. U. speaker, and 500 pages of literature distributed.

Chautauquas were held at Gosport, Spencer, Freedom and Quincy in Owen County. At Gosport the W. C. T. U. had a rest tent and gave out 1,500 pages of literature. All the speakers touched on temperance and prohibition.

At Newville Chautauqua the W. C. T. U. had headquarters on the grounds and had a W. C. T. U. day. Ex-Governor Hanley and J. Raymond Schmidt gave prohibition addresses and Mrs. Edwards gave an address on Franchise. 100 pages of literature distributed.

At Winona Lake Assembly the W. C. T. U. secured a place on the program, lectures being given by Rev. John Steele.

In Wayne County Chautauquas were held at Fountain City and Richmond. At Fountain City the W. C. T. U. had a rest tent on the grounds, which was furnished with easy chairs and decorated with flags and original posters.

On the Richmond Chautauqua grounds headquarters were maintained in a tent which was furnished with tables of literature, easy chairs and a cot. It was decorated with original posters, which attracted much attention. Several dozen fans and a large amount of literature were given out.

REPORT OF FRANCHISE DEPARTMENT

Dear Co-Workers:

Mrs. Kirkman's resignation because of ill health occurred in March. As soon as possible work was begun for the constitutional convention provided for by the legislative act of 1917. Up to the time of the adverse decision of the Supreme Court on July 13, concerning the convention act, the women of our organization worked incessantly and intelligently in constitution study classes. Several thousand copies of the state constitution and of the March edition of the MESSAGE with the legislative acts, and hundreds of copies of the new constitution text book and quiz books were studied faithfully, and the knowledge thereby obtained makes the Supreme Court decisions of July and October somewhat of a sad mockery to the organized womanhood of the state.

Poll books with definite instructions were prepared in May for every precinct in the state. Letters were sent to every state superintendent and county president of the franchise, Christian citizenship and press departments. Postals were sent to all other W. C. T. U. county officers and to the presidents of local Unions.

The fine reports returned in September by county and local franchise superintendents, if given in detail would require many pages. Study classes, franchise meetings, debates, talks, W. C. T. U. notaries for registration and hundreds of White Ribbon poll takers were reported, besides the telegrams, letters and petitions sent to state and nation legislative bodies. Mrs. Over-man's report shows that Grant county led in franchise work. Elkhart county also has a good record. Almost all reports show co-operation with the Franchise League in their card poll taking. Your state superintendent wishes it were possible to print in detail the thorough work done all over the state, and firmly believes no organization in any state of the union ever worked more faithfully for any cause than did the White Ribboners of Indiana for real democracy.

And their efforts have been in vain! Half of the citizens of Indiana are disfranchised because the enemies of real democracy and of enlightened womanhood brought a suit and one section of the constitution of the state appealed more strongly than three other sections to three members of the Supreme Court! We women have worked hard but we have not worked as did our enemies in the right place. We spent our spare time from home and war work and our pennies in learning about the constitution, how to register and vote in order that we might be intelligent and conscientious citizens. Our enemies spent their efforts in trying to get the constitution to say we could not vote. And they did this after they had taken from us the possibility for a number of years of a new constitution! We could take care of our families, grow and conserve food, send our sons away with breaking hearts and a forced smile "To win democracy for the world" and still study, register and get other women to register because we had the hope that at last we were to have the opportunity to help the men out of this horrible world-wide misery and woe, brought about by man-government, woman-in-the-home-only (the German) theory of society.

Our next year's work must be planned and given from month to month in the MESSAGE. We will work for the Federal amendment, do everything possible to get it enacted by congress. Then if necessary, we will work for the Beardsley amendment to our own constitution. And since we have learned so bitterly with many of the good men of the state that our present constitution forbids all progress we will work more earnestly than ever for a new constitution. For we well know that many sections besides the fateful section Two of Article II need changes and we know too that the amendment process is practically impossible.

As everything—Federal, State amendment and new constitution—depends upon candidates nominated at the primaries and upon political party organizations built upon primary elections, let's do what we can that both nominees and precinct committeemen may be men who will try to make things better in Indiana.

At our next convention at Richmond in 1918 an exhibit in card and poster form will be made of the year's franchise work. Every White Ribboner's report in card form will be on file at the convention for examination, and the work of the best counties will be charted for wall exhibition.

Thanking the many faithful workers for all their service, and feeling keenly our disappointment over the power, privilege, yes, and the right taken from us when no other women have ever been so treated.

MEDICAL TEMPERANCE

It has been established that alcohol is neither a stimulant nor a sedative but merely an excitant, whose effects are invariably followed by excessive reaction.

The real factor in the decline of alcohol as a medicinal agent has been the careful observation and the unprejudiced reasoning of thoughtful scientific men in the laboratory and at the bedside. No physician who has closely investigated the action of alcohol in recent years prescribes alcohol. It is rapidly disappearing from both hospital and private practice. Several decades ago doctors advised the drinking of whiskey and other forms of alcohol as a preventative for bad colds and malaria and other diseases. They didn't know any better, and they had to advise something.

Some physicians are sounding the danger signal, but concerted action is necessary, as in the campaign against tuberculosis, if the miseries caused by alcoholism are ever to be wiped out. Greater glory could not come to the medical profession than to be the means of destroying alcoholism, that scourge which causes so much disease, crime, poverty, insanity, idiocy and immorality.

The medical profession should welcome prohibition for the nation.

The patent medicines and soft drinks evil will put up a hard enough fight to keep us busy for a while.

Drug fiends, who cannot get the drugs, often find their equivalent in certain "patent" medicines.

Many chronic drunkards are brought into being through these medicines. Sometimes temperance people become intoxicated by so called nerve medicines, through ignorance.

The influence of the advertisements is perhaps greatest through the religious journals, especially among people of religious tendencies, though I cannot see how these papers can accept money for what is cruelty to the sick. The pure food law has been a great help against these frauds, but it has not gone far enough. Some manufacturers still disobey the law, but the chief trouble is that people do not pay enough attention to the label. With some of these drugs a habit can be formed that is as bad as using morphine, opium or cocaine.

We should educate against soft drinks made up with drugs such as Coca Cola. A gentleman recently stated that it took six months of medical treatment to cure him of the drug habit acquired through taking "doped" soft drinks, although he was able to lay aside whiskey and tobacco without medical help.

Pure food and drug laws will be of little avail in stopping this wicked drugging of children, unless a strong and plain speaking campaign is started in our country. Go into any general store in the country—north, east, west or south, and look upon the upper shelves. Soothing syrups, colic cures, stomach regulators, all sorts of children's medicines containing poisons are what will meet your eye.

This is the era of narcotic suppression, and let us do all in our power against alcohol in all its forms.

I acknowledge with deep gratitude the splendid efforts of our White Ribboners this year in carrying out so faithfully my plan for this department.

There are 34 counties organized in this department. We have distributed 10,000 pages of literature and have reached 500 physicians. Have held 40 meetings. 50 nurses have been reached. 20 lectures or addresses or talks have been given. I have given out 600 Plan of Work; reached 100 physicians at the Health Conference at Indianapolis. Distributed 1036 pages of Coca Cola leaflets and Soft Drink leaflets at the County fair. Sent out 460 Letters of Questions to physicians. Leaflets were distributed to many school children and Sunday Schools. Pennant goes to Grant County.

EFFIE MORRISON, State Superintendent of Medical Temperance.

REPORT OF CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT

The demands of the times both upon our time and our purses have been felt in this department the past year. However, we have managed to hold our own in the number of subscriptions sent in.

It is encouraging to know that so many are still loyal to the paper and realize that the more tense and stupendous the affairs of the age the greater the need of a "Signal" to keep us to the right course.

From 14 counties reporting the following has been compiled, but evidently much more has been done than was reported. Wabash county sends the best report and is therefore entitled to the pennant.

Twenty-one presidents reported not taking the Union Signal, and 52 department superintendents who do take it.

One hundred and ninety-four regular subscriptions have been sent, and 84 monthly Unions in 8 counties observed Union Signal Day and 1132 copies of the paper were distributed. Three members of the Win One Circle are reported.

REPORT OF WORK AMONG COLORED PEOPLE

Dear Co-Workers and Friends:

I am happy to tell you that this year great progress has been made among the colored people. Men as well as women are eager to learn more about our great organization and are falling into line on total abstinence and a white life for all people.

Mrs. McCurdy reports nine (9) unions organized this year and we are praying that much good will result from her labors.

The following is a copy of reports I have received:

Russia has abolished its vodka, Paris has placed a ban on absinthe, King George has abandoned wine, spirits and beer. Great corporations, munition factories, in fact all branches of industry are urging prohibition as an economic necessity.

If the white man does not want to advocate the cause of prohibition for himself and his own he will be conferring a boon of inestimable value upon the negro race, by striving to save the negro from the American booze trap.

The destruction of alcohol must not be considered in money but in cost of manhood and womanhood.

PURITY IN LITERATURE AND ART

"It is a good thing to read a good book—it is a grander thing to live a good life, and in the living of such a life is generated the power that defies age and its decadence."

Another year has drawn to a close with interest increasing rapidly in this department all over the state. White ribboners are awakening more and more to the fact that books and magazines containing stories that picture the use of tobacco or alcohol in any form as necessary to the fullest enjoyment of life, that depict the user of these narcotics as the hero or heroine of the story, should not be given space on the shelves of their libraries.

The great "drive" in this department during the past year has been on the moving picture and other shows. In a number of cities and towns censorship committees have been appointed with the result that mayor and council have become interested to the extent that ordinances have been passed prohibiting the advertising and showing of such pictures or plays with "those under sixteen not admitted." Also prohibiting the advertising and showing of the male or female form in the nude.

"The Natural Law" was one of the shows "called off" in Elkhart at the request of the censorship committee.

Superintendents report one hundred and sixteen good books to be in circulation among the young men and women.

Many Unions subscribed for such papers as "The Youth's Companion," "The Boy Magazine" and various "church" papers to be sent to large families who could not afford to take papers.

Two hundred and seven pictures have been given including pictures of The Christ and Frances Willard.

Raids were made on sixty-five post card counters.

Mention of all that has been accomplished cannot be reported.

Number of sermons preached, 96; number of talks given, 80; number of posters used, 27; number of copies of state law distributed, 5,320; number of pages of literature distributed, 210,100.

BIBLE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

I suppose it is the unsettled condition of the country and so many calls for work for the soldier boys that accounts for the meager reports that have been sent in to me. While we are doing for the boys and men of today in the camps let us not forget that the boys and girls in the schools are our future citizens.

Miss Amanda Turner of Kokomo says they have adopted three plans for this next year's work. I wish every county superintendent would do likewise.

First—A Local Superintendent for each Union.

Second—Superintendents for the townships that have no Union.

Third—A territory given to each superintendent to work especially to interview every teacher in their territory.

Add to that one more plan:

Fourth—A class (or classes) in the High School taking the Bible Study course.

Whitley County reports that a minister in Churubusco has taught a class of forty pupils in the High School.

Crystal Union in Fort Wayne has done special work.

Six teachers at Columbus, Ind., have their children memorize Bible verses.

Summary

No. of Superintendents, 21; No. of teachers who read Bible in schools, 138; No. of pupils who study Bible in High School course, 40; sermons, 5; lectures, 2; parlor meetings, 11; pages of literature distributed, 9,925; topical Bible lessons, 18; expense for the department, $3.65.

Churubusco Union in Whitley County receives the pennant.

Dear Sisters:

I want to thank every county and local superintendent who reported.

I much regret that our report this year is not equal to that of last year.

We received a beautiful silk flag at the national convention held in Indianapolis last November for having the best general report in the nation.

I have sent literature each quarter to every county superintendent.

Have answered all letters received and they were many.

The pennant goes to Marion County. Posey County has the second best report.

HUMANE EDUCATION

Dear Sisters:

The Master said, "Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy." Little did I think when urging our dear women to do their best that I personally would be the recipient of so much love made known in gifts of the material things of life. God bless you all. I cannot give figures in my report this year as my papers were lost in the cyclone.

I have written to every County President and to the County Superintendents, also to some Local Superintendents.

Our women are developing much interest in this department. I thank you all for your kind interest in this beautiful work. God bless you all, the best women in the world.

Cash on hand, $2.00.

ANNA M. JONES, State Superintendent.

PROPORTIONATE AND SYSTEMATIC GIVING.

Across almost every avenue of labor for our beloved W. C. T. U. is a toll bar and the question of finances is a very serious one to us, lack of money prevents the entering of so many fields, the pressing of so many hopeful lines. But God has given us His own plan and who will follow these will meet the needs. Dare we say we will not, that we can not afford to follow it? If it is His plan we can afford it. It is not only His plan but a plain command. It is to lift forever the burden of poverty from His work, that the Lord gave the plain simple way. It is ours to execute and relieve ourselves of the load of responsibility and of doubtful expedients and weary planning. Each Union has received some literature as samples, but one has asked for literature.

Counties reporting—Bartholomew, Delaware, Grant, Marion, Owen, Tippecanoe, Whitley and Wells.

Unions reporting—North Vernon and the McColl of Richmond.

I sent out 7,061 pages of literature, expended for postage $2.86, for literature $4.25, other expenses 46 cents, appropriation $8.00, balance 43 cents.

REPORT OF LITERATURE SUPERINTENDENT.

October 15, 1917.

In making this report, I am saying good-bye to my dear co-workers throughout the state. As my children grow older they require more minutes, more hours every day; so, for a while I am giving up some of my W. C. T. U. work. My successor will be a new inspiration to you and I sincerely hope you will rally to her call in a way that will bring results.

It is only by comparison that we know whether we have lagged behind, stood still, or advanced in our work, and how happy I am to tell you that this department is doing more work every year. In this busy age the superintendents of literature have found that they must tell a long story in a few words—therefore 4,512 posters and like supplies were used, four times as many as last year. A distribution of 660,312 pages of literature was reported, Miami county having lead by a total of 203,453 pages. During the year 489 temperance books have been in circulation and let us hope that our dear "Sammies" have not been forgotten. $309.54 has been spent for literature and supplies and I sincerely believe that every penny is a seed from which good fruit will grow.

Meetings held in the interest of this department, 66; unions observing March 1st as Union Signal Day, 19; tables of literature in conventions, 18. Grant county is taking the pennant home this year, but on a small margin for Miami county has done splendid work.

Lovingly yours,

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Dear Sisters:

Another year with added responsibilities has passed. On every hand we see sad countenances, the best of our land is being called out to defend the honor of our country. Have we been as zealous in defending our Holy Sabbath day from desecration? The field widens before us. There is much more work to be done. The God of our Sabbath still lives and through Him we look for victory. Much good work has been done, I am sure, by each county, only 18 having reported. Decatur and Wabash counties have closed the Sunday moving picture show, while Wayne had one censored. We are glad for the great victories achieved along this line in the eastern states, and pray the time will speedily come when our own officials will say, "as for me and my house we will serve the Lord of the Sabbath."

Summary of work done as reported: Superintendents state, county and local, 125; pages of literature distributed, 60,150; sermons, 148; signatures to pledge, 2,939; prayer meetings, 63; state Sabbath laws, 372; public meetings held, 43; call to prayer, 451; S. REPORT OF RESCUE DEPARTMENT

Another year has passed and gone, and I feel like the department of rescue work is slowly but surely gaining, judging from the letters I received during the year asking for helps and literature, but then they failed to report what had been done. From years of wastefulness we have gradually merged into years of economy of all things necessary to the human family, its comfort and existence—the forests which the axe of man has felled we now protect—the beds of coal to heat our homes and feed the fire of industry, we try to save

The soil which is the very mother of our existence we now replenish when exhausted by constant use. We protect by laws enacted for that purpose, animals on the farm, the birds, fishes that they may thrive and multiply—yet in all this progress we are beginning to turn our attention in a practical manner to the study of the social evil with its penalties of physical suffering and decay that destine not merely our bodies but our souls and characters. The people are beginning to bestir themselves in a combat for the safety of their children.

The study given this important subject bespeaks a keen appreciation of the responsibility imposed on all, yet many are not informed and the question comes, what shall we do?—the answer would be: make this a special study and go to work to help rescue the fallen, and help to make the world so it will be easier for them to live, by getting rid of the evils.

Wabash reported that they had aided in rescuing twenty-one girls, found homes for seven, distributed two hundred pages of literature, gave twenty-five dollars to the rescue work, held three meetings, sixteen gospel services held in rescue homes, and one in house of prostitution, with ten conversions.
MRS. EDITH CARVER, Supt.

Marion County held twenty-eight devotional meetings, six regular meetings in the interest of rescue work, gave fifty-five dollars in the interest of rescue work, fifty personal talks, seven hundred visits and gave seven hundred and thirty-five pages of literature.

PARLIAMENTARY USAGE.

There may have been a time in the beginning of the W. C. T. U. work when we did our work conscientiously and made some progress with little knowledge of parliamentary law, but not now. So many new responsibilities are being placed upon women it becomes necessary, imperative, that we have a knowledge of the rules of procedure that govern deliberative bodies. The business of an organization can not be transacted in an orderly, dignified and impressive manner without a knowledge of parliamentary law.

Women have taken more interest than formerly in this department. There has been many calls for literature and many intelligent inquiries have come to your superintendent. Below are given the questions and answers that make up the annual report:

1. Does your union give any time in its regular meeting to this department? 51 report, Yes.
2. How many lessons given in the past year? 182.
3. Do you practice parliamentary law in your regular meetings? 55 unions report they do.
4. What helps do you use? Roberts Rules, Mrs. Benjamin's Studies, Mrs. Gibson's Parliamentary Catechism.
5. Are the women interested in rules of order? Very much.
6. How many copies of Roberts' Rules of Order owned by Unions or individuals? 63 reported.
7. How much money used in this Department? $11.93 by unions.
8. How many special meetings held for this department? 22.
9. How many pages of literature used? 5,877.
10. How do you elect officers? Nominate and elect by ballot.
11. How do you appoint Superintendents? Recommended by the executive committee and endorsed by the union.

State Superintendent, Jonesboro, Indiana.

REPORT OF THE SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE INSTRUCTION DEPT.

Much interest has been manifested in this department this year, and no doubt a great deal of hard work has been done that has never been reported.

We have all felt that the victories which came to us as a state along prohibition lines have been due largely to the education and agitation in the schools and homes during the years that have passed.

Perhaps it was our victories, or our defeats, or the stress of the present war situation—or all three put together—that caused some of the superintendents from the best counties in this department to fail to report this year.

During the past year, the seventeen counties reporting have had 516 prize essays written, $62.00 given in prizes, 38 graded charts with manuals, placed in the schools, 81 young crusaders, 39 copies of the Compendium of Temperance Truth placed in the school libraries, 15 copies of the Temperance Quarterly in the schools; 39 parent and teachers receptions and perhaps 25,000 pages of literature distributed.

The High School prize of $10.00 in gold this year goes to Katherine Lindley of Miami County.

The Grade prize of $5.00 in gold, to Naomi Parrish of Fountain City, Wayne County.

As there was no college contest this year and since the state appropriates $25.00 for prizes, it was decided to award second and third prizes of $3.00 and $2.00 each in both high school and grade work. The second prize of $3.00 goes to Gehard Frantz of Berne, Adams county. The third prize of $2.00 to Floyd County, Georgetown Union.

The second prize in grade essay work goes to Lafayette, Tippecanoe county, and the third prize to Huntington County.

These essays where the name is not given had no name or town on them and could only be located as to county. Please put name and address of writer on each essay sent to the state.

A splendid essay on Methods was written by Mrs. Grace B. Olive of the Wabash city schools which was sent to compete for the National prize, along with the first prize high school and grade essays. The winning essays will be printed in the September-October number of the Temperance Quarterly. These should be placed into the schools as an incentive to the boys and girls who will write during the coming year.

The pennant goes to Wabash County for the best report, with 152 essays written in the county.

This year we are urging observance of Temperance Day in the schools. The national day adopted by the states is the fourth Friday in October, but a later date can be used this year. Every local superintendent should send at once to National headquarters for prepared programs, and thus help the teachers to do this work. The Benton county superintendent has prepared an outline for teacher's institute work which has been approved by the county superintendent, thus having temperance work done in each of her eleven townships at each of her monthly institutes. Let others do likewise. If we would succeed in safeguarding our youth we must push this part of the work as never before.

MISS MARTHA SPEICHER,
State Superintendent, Urbana, Ind.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

We have been heeding the saying of the prophet Isaiah: "Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters. We come bringing our sheaves, and as we gather results we find our arms far too short to reach the needs and demands that are upon us."

The work has grown trebly in this department within the last year. People are aroused to the fact there is the greatest need of work among this class of people than ever before. Why? Because the darkest days and hours that some of us have ever seen have come to us. Because of what? War.

These homes have been robbed of the best of our fair land. Hence our responsibility is far greater, the work is heavier, because of the soul need of these precious boys, who have been taken so our government says, to bring world wide democracy. Then if this be true, we are doubly responsible for our part of this great warfare in helping to stamp out the sin and temptation that will be thrown in their pathway. Can we, as White Ribbon Sisters, be comfortably at ease knowing the hardship and struggle that these boys are enduring?

Will we not help a little? The words of our Savior, "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me." Will we not then make some of the necessary articles that will help to relieve the suffering of some of these?

Send good literature, Hobson leaflet and others. Send your work to the press, that others may know you are helping to save these boys. Let every dear sister pray much that peace may soon reign supreme the world over.

MEDAL CONTESTS

This is pre-eminently an educational age. Knowing that the best that has been accomplished in life, has been done through education, we realize that one of the most telling ways in which to bring reform causes before the public is by means of Medal Contests.

That great philanthropist, Wm. Jennings Demorest, by his far-sighted generosity, has placed the people of this generation under lasting obligation to him by the inauguration of this splendid system, which has now been in operation over three decades.

No where in all the world is there such a library of brilliants from the prohibition classics, as in our 25 volumes of telling prohibition argument and oratory found in our Medal Contest Reciters.

Every educational phase of the great struggle through which we are passing in this century in watching the death throes of John Barleycorn, are represented.

Every great name in the list of prohibition orators and educators are on the roll of contributors. In No. 22—our latest book—we find a splendid oration from the fertile brain of our own state president—Cuilla J. Vayhinger.

We believe, as do many others, that repeating these strong selections all over our land has been the greatest educator the W. C. T. U. has had. They have been the weapon that has lashed the public with burning words and phrases that have made them think and act. Hence we are living in the dawning of a bright and glorious saloonless day, thanks be to God and the medal contest department, as well as all other departments of our great organization.

Young people, who have participated in medal contests, have had their ambitions fired to go to college, get an education, fit themselves that they might better fight the great liquor traffic and its attendant evils.

The Medal Contest system is one that appeals largely to young people in its literary feature of a world-wide movement in which thousands of them have become the entertainers, who otherwise might never have known their own capabilities. It is educational first, and thus trains workers for every battle in the interests of society; it is closely linked with the present century reform and has been a factor in every movement having sublime ideals.

Christ says, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." And many a man has been set free from prejudice against the prohibition cause by listening to these splendid selections delivered by the young people of his community.

While many good people disagree as to the best political method of fighting the liquor traffic, no fair-minded person can object to these medal contests for the prohibition education of the rising generation, and the improving of public sentiment generally on the prohibition question.

And to the woman who will engage in this work as superintendent of the department there comes an education in broadening her vision, increasing her usefulness, and keeping her young in heart.

May there be no cessation in this great educational factor of our glorious organization until the dream of Frances E. Willard, "A Nation Without a Saloon," be realized, not later than 1920.

Not so many contests have been held this year as last, which I regret. Whole number of contests held 210, of which 157 were silver, 40 small gold, 10 grand gold and 3 diamond; 850 books have been sent into the homes of our state.

Fennant goes to Henry County.

JULIA OVERMAN, Superintendent, Marion, Ind.

PHALANX PAGE

I wish I could say something that would greatly impress you with the value of our page in the Patriotic Phalanx. This space is a free will offering on the part of the paper for the advancement of our work, and every union and every superintendent may have a part in filling the columns with bright, spicy, newsy items or your plans for aggressive work or the victories you have scored.

If we hope for national prohibition in the near future we must keep the work before the public. The Phalanx being a weekly paper our opportunities are much greater than if our articles appeared only monthly. Some departments have been represented many times, others only once.

We send in enough copy each week to fill from three to five columns.

Let me give you a little illustration of how our work multiplies. The Superintendent of Scientific Temperance sends in an article on the "Power of Alcohol to Destroy Efficiency." It is read by 10,000 readers of the Patriotic Phalanx. The County Superintendent has it reproduced in the county paper, and 2,000 or 3,000 more people read it. Members take it to the Union and it is read and discussed there and directed placed in the hands of public school teachers.

I want to repeat some of the points I made last year hoping that they may be helpful in reporting a county meeting, or an all-day meeting, or a good meeting of any kind:

Tell how many Unions represented.

How many voting delegates.

How many visitors.

How many new members.

How many babies dedicated.

How many babies in the Better Baby Contest; who won first, second and third prize.

How many in the oratorical contest; who won the medal.

If you had a booth at the exhibit or county fair, what did you do; how many pages of literature distributed; who got the prize in the poster contest; what kind of posters were the prize winners—temperance, prohibition or suffrage; how many subscribers to the Union Signal, Patriot Phalanx, and Young Crusader.

When you make out your quarterly report send a copy to the editor of our Phalanx page. All these things will be news to other Unions, and inspire them to do likewise.

MATTIE CAMMACK-GIBSON.

SOCIAL MEETINGS AND RED LETTER DAYS

I am sorry my department has not grown as it has in former years, but judging by our town and county I think the activity of the Red Cross has had something to do with it. People are giving up so many other good things now to work in the Red Cross and kindred associations, and I have no fault to find. When this terrible war is over, we can again pick up the scattered threads.

Following is my report:

I estimated on a per cent basis this time. Marion county has 98 per cent. Grant county has 90 per cent. Six counties follow with 80 per cent and the rest of the thirty counties reporting made 65 per cent, 60 per cent, fifty per cent, and one as low as thirty per cent. Marion county gets the pennant.

Financial Report

Appropriation from state, $8.00; postage, $3.00; literature, $4.00; printing, $1.00.

Thirty counties reported. Two hundred and fifteen Red Letter Days observed. Three hundred social meetings. Eighty lawn socials. Fourteen counties helped observe 4th of July, as governor asked for county celebrations. One hundred Unions gave $2.00 to Frances Willard Memorial Fund. Two hundred members gained. Fifty honorary members. $425.00 in offerings.

MOTHERS' MEETINGS AND WHITE RIBBON RECRUITS

I desire to thank the county and local superintendents of this department for their co-operation in the past year in making this department one of the best. I also thank the dear women for their helpful letters and words of encouragement.

The following counties sent in reports, not all of them in full as nearly every County Superintendent said we have Local Superintendents but only a part of them reported: Allen, Bartholomew, Benton, Blackford, Dearborn, Clinton, Grant, Hancock, Henry, Jay, Marion, Morgan, Miami, Madison, Newton, Tippecanoe, Union, Owen, Wells, Whitely, Wayne, Wabash.

Marion County receives the pennant.

FAIRS AND OPEN AIR MEETINGS

The past year has been one of unusual activities. The most important theme with the masses is the preparation of our soldiers and sailors to fight the enemy in foreign countries. The minds of the people have been so absorbed in this great and patriotic work, that but little has been done compared with other years. I am hoping and praying for better things another year.

I beg leave to submit the following report:

Allen County reports no fair; 11 open air meetings. Joined the L. T. L. and Y. P. B. in parades—raised $1.11 for this work. The influence of these meetings was very good and can not help being profitable.

Marion County reports eight open air meetings. Reached 1,000 people, distributed 2,000 pages of literature, and gained 5 new members.

Wayne County reports held annual Fourth of July all-day open air meeting, with Ross F. Lockridge, secretary of Citizens' League of Indiana as the principal speaker; reached 350 people.

Marshall County reports two fairs, distributed 3,576 pages literature, gained 2 new members, held one exhibit, spent some time with Y. P. B. and L. T. L. interesting them in the Young Crusader.

Pennant goes to Allen County.

Respectfully,

LIZZIE HEATH, State Supt.

PEACE AND ARBITRATION

Most of the work done in this department was during the first half of the year, before the United States entered the war. Below is a summary of the reports received. I am confident much more work was done than has been reported. One person reported "a lot of literature," another "some literature" distributed, etc., etc. But I have included in the report only the definite items reported to me.

Parlor meetings in interest of peace, 25; public meetings in interest of peace, 18; sermons on peace, 64; Peace Day observances, 8; papers and talks, 58; contests, 4; pages of literature, 30,264; Peace papers taken, 25; posters used, 68. The posters were most of them displayed in public places.

Four hundred postals with quotations on peace have been used.

Twenty-nine letters, telegrams and petitions have been sent to congressmen. Most of these were sent in protest to the conscription law.

Fourteen columns of peace matter have been written and published. Our press superintendent, Mrs. Gertrude Q. Campbell, wrote 12 of these.

The pennant this year goes to Grant county.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT OF TEMPERANCE AND MISSIONS

Another year of achievement has passed into history, and how the White Ribbon hosts of Indiana should rejoice. The enemy has been met and conquered.

But, though Indiana has scored a great victory, our flag still carries the same stain, and the call of the Stars and Stripes still comes to every woman who wears the white bow. Our country has not yet realized her duty toward the unprotected nations of earth, and King Alcohol still reigns in the uttermost parts of the world.

We are told that shipments to Africa this year have been three times as much as they were before the war. China is still cursed with the American cigarette, Japan still has all the "pure beer" she wants, and it comes from America. Are we discouraged? God forbid. We are hopeful that our country seeing how great is the need of protecting those who have shouldered the responsibility of defending our national ideals, will not be slow to recognize what a great menace to our defense is the legalized liquor traffic. We still have faith, that God is in His Heaven and all will be well.

This year has been a hard one on this department, for the women seemed to feel that it was important to spend much time and thought on our new constitution, consequently we have not the report to offer the state that we have had in previous years, but the interest in the work has grown, and we are glad to report that every county superintendent has said she will do more and better work next year.

The state plan will not be changed very much next year, and those who are working in this department may go on and continue in the work under last year's plan until the new one is out. Your superintendent is more anxious for results than for methods.

The great need of this department is new literature, and we hope to publish another new leaflet early in the new year. New down to date literature will do much to help, but consecrated, faithful co-operation means much, and that is what we have in Indiana.

The pennant goes to Marshall county.

Mrs. Nettie Ringgenberg, the faithful, untiring county superintendent, sent her report in on time, and had the best report that has come to our desk this year.

Summary

Number of local superintendents, 63; number of temperance secretaries in missionary auxiliaries, 117; number of temperance secretaries in Young Peoples' societies, 52; number of meetings held in the interest of the department by local unions, 55; sermons preached, 21; number of addresses made, 75; number of churches reached through this department, 25; number of church missionary boards co-operating with temperance forces, 7; number of paid members gained through this department, 12; number of White Ribbons in missionary societies, 541; amount of literature used, 64,815 pages; letters written to missionaries, 25; amount of money spent to further this work, $86.10.

HEALTH AND HEREDITY

Dear Co-Workers:

Along with the sorrows and heartaches that have come to us this year on account of the war, is also an awakening along the line of health.

People are learning that we can not carry the heavy burdens placed upon us today unless we have good health. In fact we are learning these bodies are sacred and are studying the laws of health and efficiency.

I wrote to Julia Lathrop at Washington, D. C., the first of January for fifty copies of Child Welfare and Baby Week Campaign, and sent a copy of each to my County Superintendents. I hoped there would be many Better Baby Contests held, and Baby Week would be generally observed. I am glad to tell you that this has been our best year in the department, but there is so much to be done, and the cry is so loud. I hope every union in the state will work along this line the coming year that we may do wonders to help suffering humanity.

WORK AMONG FOREIGN SPEAKING PEOPLE

The last census shows that we have twenty-five (25) nationalities represented in our state other than American.

And still most of the report blanks are returned with the short sentence, "We have no foreigners." Have we really made an effort to find them, or have we gone out of the way that they should not find us? Are we all doing our "best" in our state to hasten the day when it can be said in truth, "Many peoples—one nation?"

Ten superintendents have reported work done in this department; public meetings held, 161; pages of literature distributed, 44,578; money spent, $45.29, including state appropriation; number of foreign speaking White Ribboners, 91; children in L. T. L., 77; one Italian temperance society; 109 testaments given to prisoners; 17 nights' lodging; many meals and clothing given to the poor; 10 posters, 672 lessons in "Better Citizenship"; one new building erected for Sunday school and public worship; during the week it is used to instruct the girls in domestic science and the boys in manual training.

EVANGELISTIC DEPARTMENT

There is a life of supreme love to God and his command, a spiritual realm belonging to the higher nature, and whosoever enters into this realm is alive to God, to righteousness and love; his chief controlling motives are love to God and love to man. His deepest choice is to serve and obey God. It is the beginning of a character which will grow into the heavenly life, the perfection of the human being. This life is imparted by the spirit of God, enabling one to choose God and gain the victory over the lower nature. It is by this power, through this inspiration, under this influence that we are enabled to bear the fruits of the Spirit which are the virtues of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Much work has been done in the Evangelistic Department this year, many tears have been shed, many many prayers have ascended to the throne in behalf of the wayward ones made so by strong drink and other kindred evils. Then, too, our hearts have been made very tender as we have seen our bravest and best boys entering the service of our country and leaving our homes in defense of a great principle, and our prayers are hourly following these dear boys. We are praying for world peace and the return of our loved ones. I present to you only a partial report because I could not find the time nor the strength to give a complete itemized report.
